TREASURY TO URGE CUT IN SURTAX TO 20 PCT. MAXIMUM

Repeal of Publicity Section for Payments on Income
Also to Be Asked of Congress.

LOWER LEVIES ON ESTATES FAVORED

Many Letters of Protest
Have Been Received Since Figures Were Opened
to Public Inspection.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The Treasury's tax recommendations to Congress are expected to include a reduction in surtax rates to a maximum of 20 per cent, repeal of the income tax publicity section, and a lowering, if not an entire elimination, of the tax on estates. Other minor changes will be suggested to close up loopholes in the law.

Secretary Mellon, who returned today from a vacation, declined to say how active a part the Treasury would take in urging its recommendations on the House Ways and Means Committee. He previously had indicated he would make no formal proposal that could be labeled a Mellon plan and might only advance verbal suggestions in response to such questions as the committee might ask.

The Treasury holds to its often expressed belief that a majority of the taxpayers favor repeal of the publicity section. It says that a mass of letters of protest have come in since Sept. 1, when this year's payments were opened for public inspection.

Treasury officials have not committed themselves finally to a 20 per cent surtax maximum, but Mellon believes the volume of return at that rate will be greater than at a higher rate. At one time he even suggested that a 15 per cent tax would be scientifically proper.

Longworth Predicts House Will Act Quickly on Tax Measure.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Representative Nicholas Longworth, Speaker of the next House of Representatives, reported to President Coolidge just before the President's departure from White House that tax reduction legislation will command the support of a united Republican majority in the House. He predicted the measure will be sent to the Senate before Christmas.

Longworth does not anticipate such opposition from the Democrats. He said surtaxes would be reduced materially and that there will be a slight cut in the normal tax rate.

"There is a general feeling," he added, "that the country is ready for a general cut in the high income taxes, not so much for the high payers themselves, but for the great mass of people. The Democrats, of course, could try to repudiate more than the revenues would bear and it would seem to be better bill for the country."

"Suppose the Treasury could find a loss of $400,000,000 in revenue. The Democrats may urge reduction of $500,000,000 or $600,000,000. Those who are responsible in the House cannot do it. I think revenues can be trimmed safely by from $350,000,000 to $400,000,000."

Consulted Committee Members. The Speaker-designate said he had been in touch this summer with Representative Green, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, Representative Ogden Mills of New York, and other Ways and Means Committee members and has found them hopeful of an early agreement on the tax bill. He emphasized that there are no indications of a party split, such as debated the tax bill sent to the last Congress by Secretary Mellon.

President Coolidge summoned Longworth, who is on a vacation at Beverly, to White House yesterday for a report on the prospects of a party agreement. Longworth said his attention to the plan of Chairman Green to begin committee sessions Oct. 19 and to have the bill ready when Congress meets Oct. 7.

Speed on Supply Bills. "We have been all over this ground," Longworth said. "The Treasury reports will show the extent to which taxes can be cut. The Appropriations Committee also will begin hearings before Congress meets and will have two or three bills ready. I do not see why we can't pass one or two appropriate bills in addition to the tax measure before Christmas."

President Coolidge asked Longworth on Sept. 3, Column 1.

Tested Four Per Cent Alcohol by Volume, Prohibition Officer Asserts.

Someone attended the Labor day Democratic rally, addressed by Senator Reed at the country home of David Israel, Clayton and Lay roads, an after-dinner brought what purported to be a sample of some of the liquid refreshments to the St. Louis office of the Federal Prohibition Enforcement Department. It became known today.

James Dill, deputy prohibition Commissioner, in charge of enforcement in Missouri, said the sample tested 4 per cent alcohol by volume, and appeared to him to be "spiked beer." He declined to disclose the identity of the persons who volunteered the sample, other than to say it was not a person of official authority. He said he would make a report of the matter to his superiors in a few days.

As was told, the rally was made the occasion of a barbecue and outing, in which the admission charge covered all the entertainment and refreshments. Israel, the host, once was a Democratic nominee for Congress. He owns several hotels in the city.

ROBBERS GET $400 IN HOLDUP

Office on Second Floor at 1702 Market Street Scene of Robbery.

Between $400 and $500 was taken by two men in a holdup at the Terminal Brokerage Co. on the second floor of 1702 Market street, shortly after noon today. C. A. Koop, president of the company, reported to the police.

Koop and W. T. Mathews, the cashier, said they were sitting behind a partition dividing the office from the lobby when the robbers burst in. One of the robbers vaulted over the partition, which is six feet in height, and opened the door for his companion, after which he removed the currency from the cash drawer of a desk. Koop and Mathews were forced to face down on the floor, and could not see which way the men fled or whether they were in an auto. The company lends money on salaries.

Two more deaths attributed to heat were reported at the coroner's office today, bringing the total for the past seven days to 20.

The new cases were those of George Yocum, 53, a foreman, of 6143 Tennessee avenue, who died Sunday at Alesian Brothers Hospital, and John Peel, 64, a laborer, who died Tuesday at his home 2601 Park avenue. Verdicts of death due to natural causes, with heat prostration as a contributory cause, were returned by the coroner.

Similar verdicts were returned in the deaths of the following, which have been previously reported: Mrs. Edith Reese, 40, of 1434 (rear) North Fourteenth street; John A. Vogt, 75, of 4037A North Twenty-fifth street, and John Springman, 53, of 1207 Tower Grove avenue.

The body of a man, who collapsed from heat prostration in front of 4037 Franklin avenue, Sunday, and died five minutes after reaching the city hospital, was identified today as that of Fred Johnson, 40 years old, who formerly lived with his wife at 1540 South Eighth street. He was identified by a private watchman who recognized him as a man who did odd jobs for commission merchants in the vicinity.

Mrs. C. R. LaBach of Manover, Ind., a guest at the Terminal Hotel, was stricken by heat in her room about 6:30 p. m. yesterday, and was reported in a serious condition at city hospital today. She had stopped in St. Louis on her way to Versailles, Mo.

IGOE'S CONTEST, COSTING $72,000, TO BE DROPPED

City Out $22,000 of

Raised by Democratic and Republican Bodies.

RECOUNT FAILS TO FULFILL ESTIMATES

Mistakes by Voters in Marking Ballots Not Enough to Overcome Miller's 3129 Plurality.

William L. Igoe's contest of the election of Victor J. Miller to the office of Mayor, in the election of April 7, will be withdrawn within a few days, after having cost the city about $22,000 and having caused the Democratic and Republican city organizations to raise funds amounting to $50,000, most of which is believed to have been spent.

Former Circuit Judge Jesse A. McDonald, chief counsel for the contest committee, said today that he would recommend to the committee that it should not proceed with the contest. His reason is that the recount, completed last night, has failed to show sufficient changes to affect the election of Miller, which was by a plurality of 3129.

Judge McDonald said he had no doubt that his recommendation would be followed by the committee, which will meet within a few days.

Hope Abandoned Last Month. The abandonment of the contest fulfills the prediction made by the Post-Dispatch in a news article printed Aug. 22, in which it was stated that the contest, then being abandoned by the backers of the contest, and that the matter would not be carried beyond the end of the month.

The Election Board had given advance instructions which would result, in some cases, in counting the ballot in a way contrary to the apparent intent of the voter. As Igoe had run ahead of his ticket while Miller was running in the blockades to put their cargoes ashore. Masters and crews of runners are seeking other employment.

Drop in Exports. Since January exports of liquors destined ultimately for the United States have dropped almost 50 per cent, and available figures indicate that liquor exports from Great Britain this year will fall far below the annual 2,000,000 gallons sent out of the country during the last few years.

As an instance for the six months of the present year, exports for Canada aggregated only 37,341 gallons as compared with 1,011,013 gallons in 1924. Consignments to Bermuda and the West Indies, haunts of the rum runners to the United States, have shown a proportionate decrease. In the latter centers there are said to be large stocks on hand, but no one desirous of trying to run the gamut of the rum chasers and put the liquor ashore in American territory.

The loss of a large part of the rum fleet and hundreds of thousands of cases of whisky apparently has dismayed these persons in England who had hoped to get rich quickly by supplying thirsty Americans, and there now is no money available for smuggling projects. Many ships once engaged in the illicit traffic now are idle in ports.

No Money for Crew. Among these is the steamer Gen. Serrett, the captain of which says he has on board 25,000 cases of whisky destined for the United States. The vessel has been tied up at Deal for a week because the owner is unable to raise the money to pay the wages of the crew and outfit the ship for the hazardous journey into forbidden waters.

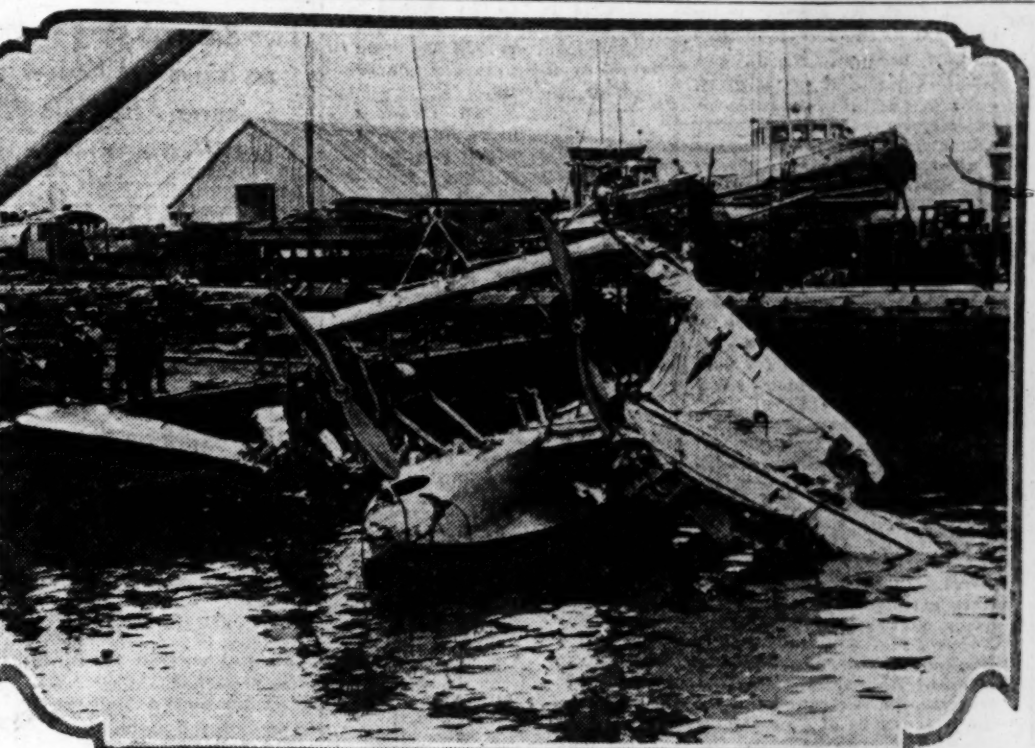

The Gen. Serrett is owned by a London woman. The captain says that if eventually he gets away from Deal he will transfer his cargo to some other ship or off the American coast, at a point where he will be in no danger of being captured.

To Enghenish the news of the stiffening of the liquor traffic in America is welcome for the huge deals of the last few years had all but exhausted all stocks of old whisky so that most of that available for purchase here is barely mature.

Wreck of Plane That Attempted Flight to Hawaii

PHOTOGRAPH shows the P.N. No. 3, Navy seaplane, which fell into the Pacific Ocean after having completed only 300 miles of its projected flight to Hawaii. It met with disaster while being towed to the Mare Island Navy Yard, when the swell from a ferry boat upset it. The P.N. No. 3 was the companion plane of the P.N. No. 1, which is missing after being forced down near Hawaii.

RUM SHIPS TIED UP IN BRITISH PORTS

Money to Finance Smuggling Voyages to America Now Scarce.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 10.—Fifteen million dollars is the estimated loss sustained during the last year by English financiers who sent out ships filled with liquor intended to assuage the thirst of Americans willing to purchase the contraband.

The swift boats of the coast guard, plying far off the shores of the United States not only have obliterated famous Rum Row, but also have cut so deeply into the bank rolls of the financiers that no longer are willing to furnish money to interdict skippers who would chance the running of the blockade to put their cargoes ashore. Masters and crews of runners are seeking other employment.

COOLIDGE BACK IN CAPITAL AFTER SUMMER'S OUTING

President to Take Up Coal Distribution and Other Matters With Cabinet Tomorrow.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—President Coolidge returned to the White House this afternoon after a summer's outing in New England. Secretaries Kellogg and Hoover greeted him at the station.

Tomorrow the President will open his office with a Cabinet meeting. Mr. Coolidge is eager to take up several matters personally with his advisers. He wants the Government prepared to distribute coal, if the suspension of activities in the anthracite fields should result eventually in hardships to consumers. He wants to confer with Secretary Kellogg on the appointment of an Ambassador to Tokyo to succeed the late Edgar Bannett.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge boarded their special train in Salem about 11 o'clock last night. Senator Butler of Massachusetts, who dined with the President and Mrs. Coolidge last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns, accompanied them on their train.

The special train stopped 10 minutes in New York this morning, but the President did not leave the train.

PUBLIC MASS MEETING TONIGHT FOR LOTTO FANS

Governor Baker to Be Petitioned to Lift the Police Ban on the Game.

A public mass meeting to protest against the Police Department's action in forbidding lotto games will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at Gambrinus Hall, 3621 Salena street, where lotto has several times been interrupted and their backers arrested.

A petition addressed to Gov. Baker asking him to allow the signers to continue to play lotto as they have played in past years, will be circulated at the meeting. Many of the signers of the document are expected to be church members and provision has been made to show in the petition the congregations to which they belong.

GERMAN 'FRIED' THE BEST

They Are More Easily Digested Than French Potatoes, It Is Claimed.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—An international fried potato competition has been settled by University of Chicago scientists.

"German fried potatoes are better for you than French fried potatoes," is the announced result of their investigation.

"We found that the German fried potato, cooked in relatively 'cold' water is more easily digested than the French fried potato," said Dr. A. C. Ivy.

$1500 Minimum Wage Urged. By the Associated Press. BOSTON, Sept. 10.—A resolution requesting Congress to establish a minimum wage of $1500 a year for all civilian adult Government workers was adopted yesterday by the delegates attending the National Federation of Federal Employees' convention. Delegates representing every branch of the Federal service except the postoffice complained that stenographers and clerks in that department were paid $1700 a year, while clerks in other departments did the same work at $900 a year.

$6000 Payroll Taken in Holdup. By the Associated Press. BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The $6000 payroll of the Buffalo plant of the American Wire Wheel Corporation was stolen today by three men who held up two employees who were taking the money from a bank to the plant.

AVIATORS' COATS ON HAWAIIAN BEACH

Finding of Them Gives Hope of Clew to Fate of Crew of Lost U. S. Seaplane.

By the Associated Press. HONOLULU, Sept. 10.—Two aviators' coats found on the Keolu beach, seven miles from Hilo, today gave hope of a clew to the fate of the crew of five of the missing seaplane P.N. No. 1 which vanished Sept. 1 in Mid-Pacific.

The plane was on a non-stop flight to Honolulu and indicated in radio-cast messages that her fuel supply was low and she might be forced down into a stormy sea.

Authorities also were investigating a report to the Advertiser from its Hilo correspondent which said: "Two Kapok life preserving jackets marked 'U. S. Navy' were found last night on the beach at Lelelwi Point, 10 miles south of Hilo."

The jackets were ordered delivered to a battleship today for inspection.

By the Associated Press. APOAK, U. S. R. LANGLEY, Sept. 10.—Another tale of courage is told aboard the Langley in connection with the search for the missing seaplane P.N. No. 1. Two pilots of the squadron assisting in the search for the big plane are cheerfully and willingly flying land planes without pontoons over the wide areas of the Pacific. They know that if they encounter adverse weather such as that which struck the P.N. No. 1 and are forced down, their planes will sink within a few minutes. Each of the pilots, however, carries an extra life preserver, and planes are kept under constant observation by lookouts.

Nine Concerns Pay Between $200,000 and $1,787,000, Eight Between $115,000 and $200,000.

In today's list of corporation income tax payments for 1924 there are nine St. Louis corporations which paid taxes ranging from $200,000 to $1,787,088, and eight corporations paying taxes ranging from $115,000 to $200,000. The total tax payments of these 17 corporations was $6,136,349.

Leading today's list is the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., with an income tax payment of $1,787,088.79, which is the second largest corporation income tax paid in this district for 1924. The largest corporate income taxpayer will be announced tomorrow by Collector Hellmich. Liggett & Myers has an authorized capital of $100,000,000, and an issued capitalization of $65,481,275. The tax, levied at the corporation rate of 12 1/2 per cent, or one-eighth of the net profit reported for the year 1924, shows the report to have been $14,296,710.32. C. C. Dula is president of the company.

Two railroads having headquarters here, the Frisco and the Wabash, show a larger tax than the Missouri-Kansas-Texas, reported yesterday, while the Cotton Belt and Missouri Pacific have a smaller tax than the M-K-T.

This company employs a process of separating salt water from oil, thus making crude oil available which was formerly wasted. The discoverer of the process, Barnickel, died two years ago, leaving the business to relatives and employees.

Today's list is the last one prepared by Collector Hellmich of firms which make their income tax returns for the calendar year ending Dec. 31. A list including some of the firms whose fiscal years do not coincide with the calendar year, and which are allowed 75 days after the end of their fiscal year for making reports to the Collector, will be given out tomorrow.

the Trip.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—(P)—The investigation by a disinterested agency of charges made by Col. William Mitchell against army administration of air service matters is favored by Acting Secretary Davis of the War Department.

Davis has told his colleagues in the department that such an investigation should be made by some agency other than the War Department itself if the public was to be entirely satisfied. He also stressed his intention to see that while he continues as Acting Secretary, Col. Mitchell shall receive full treatment in connection with the disciplinary steps which have been initiated against that officer.

30-32 West Building,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—(P)—The investigation by a disinterested agency of charges made by Col. William Mitchell against army administration of air service matters is favored by Acting Secretary Davis of the War Department.

Davis has told his colleagues in the department that such an investigation should be made by some agency other than the War Department itself if the public was to be entirely satisfied. He also stressed his intention to see that while he continues as Acting Secretary, Col. Mitchell shall receive full treatment in connection with the disciplinary steps which have been initiated against that officer.

One opinion expressed today was that the President would not stop the court martial if Mitchell's charges were ordered, would not that side on the ground that the verdict itself constituted a reprimand that the culprit should take to heart.

In the light of the statement issued by Col. Mitchell yesterday in which he stated he would neither plead to nor defend a charge of insubordination, and added for good measure that the investigation that is needed is of the war department and not of the navy departments and their conduct in the disgraceful administration of aeronautics, the theory of the prospective clemency does not seem plausible.

While the war department plans to bar everything controversial leaving the court martial only the question of breach of discipline to consider, it is evident that Col. Mitchell's statements are not to be left uncontradicted.

Secretary of the Navy Wilbur yesterday issued a memorandum based on the reports of Capt. Steele, commander of the naval station at Lakehurst to which the Shenandoah was attached and of Admiral Moffett, chief of the bureau of aeronautics, who has just returned from the Pacific Coast after watching the flight of the ill-fated PN-9 flight for Honolulu.

According to Wilbur, "The orders for the Shenandoah's flight were issued as provided by law and by regulations. There was nothing political whatever in connection with the flight of the Shenandoah. The flight was determined upon last June and had no relation to the Polar flight or the Hawaiian flight."

Could Have Abandoned Flight. In addition to replying to these particular counts in the Mitchell indictment, the Secretary for the first time makes official answer to certain statements attributed to the widow of the commander of the Shenandoah.

The details of the flight, he says, were arranged during his absence on the Pacific Coast by Admiral Moffett, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, and Admiral Threlk, chief of operations, in accordance with the suggestions of Commander Landowne, who had fixed the time of the flight and who had power to change it or abandon the flight altogether if his judgment so dictated, as Capt. Steele did in his partially completed trip to St. Paul in the Los Angeles in June.

Five Officers to Investigate. Secretary Wilbur announced that the five most competent officers of the navy will conduct an investigation to ascertain the facts regarding the Shenandoah disaster. Admiral Moffett has ordered the Secretary of the Navy to conduct an investigation into the disaster.

Wilbur's Statement on Recent Airship Disasters

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

Following is the text of Secretary Wilbur's reply to the charges made in connection with recent aeronautical disaster:

"Capt. G. W. Steele, Commander of the Naval Air Station, Lakehurst, N. J., and Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, reported to me today (Wednesday) concerning the accidents to the Shenandoah and the PN-9 No. 1. It seems without waiting for the termination of the formal inquiry to correct certain misleading statements that are being published.

"The orders issued for the Shenandoah's flight were issued by the departmental officers as are all orders for ship movements, as provided by law and by regulation.

Nothing Political in Flight. There was nothing political whatever in connection with the flight of the Shenandoah. The flight was determined upon last June and had no relation to the Polar flight or the Hawaiian flight.

The details of the flight were arranged during my absence on the Pacific Coast by Admiral Moffett, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, and Admiral Threlk, chief of operations, in accordance with the suggestions of Commander Landowne, who had fixed the time of the flight and who had power to change it or abandon the flight altogether if his judgment so dictated, as Capt. Steele did in his partially completed trip to St. Paul in June.

Commander Landowne never protested against the flight. In person or by communication to me or anyone in the department, and on the contrary expressed his satisfaction with it to his superiors and associates. Capt. Steele, his immediate superior, states Commander Landowne was fully confident that the flight would be successfully made.

Had He Objected the flight would have been postponed or abandoned, as was done when the trip was suggested for July.

Gas Bags Inflated. "It is manifest that the accident to the Shenandoah was in flights assigned to the Honolulu flight were unwilling to go or felt they were being required to take undue risks by their superior officers is nonsense," said Moffett.

"Commander Landowne was absolutely confident of the outcome of the flight. Every man detailed to make the flight shared this confidence. Pilots ordered to San Francisco as alternatives in the event of a disaster were deeply disappointed that they did not have a chance to go.

"I am confident that every qualified pilot in the navy would have welcomed the opportunity to make the Honolulu flight. The crew of the PN-9 was eager to go, even after the PN-9 was forced down.

"They felt that they were doing something in the interest of aviation development and for the benefit of the entire nation. From close association with them I am very confident they did not feel that undue risk was involved.

"The PN-9 had made a duration flight of 28½ hours, and before she was forced down with her goal almost in sight had been in the air only about 25 hours from the time of her hop-off at San Francisco.

"Any statement that Commander Landowne opposed the use of the PN-9 for the Honolulu flight is ridiculous. No officer could have been more confident and enthusiastic over the prospect of success.

"We have had forced landings before in both the Atlantic and Pacific. They are by no means a novelty. We have had them in the Pacific on flights to Panama. They are accepted by flyers as part of the routine of the job."

Congressional Investigation. The opinion of Capt. Anton Hedden, dirigible construction engineer, in connection of the number of escape valves on the Shenandoah, is one of the questions that will be inquired into in a congressional investigation of the Shenandoah disaster, announced by Chairman Butler of the House Naval Affairs Committee.

The committee, Chairman Butler said, also will investigate the attack of Col. William Mitchell on the administration of the air services in which he included the assertion that politics had dictated the flight of the Shenandoah. Statements attributed to Mrs. Zachary Landowne, widow of the Shenandoah commander, that her husband had opposed the flight but which she has since denied making, also will be looked into by the committee.

Bank to Get Life Insurance. Wilbur of President to Help Make Good Shortage.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 10.—Mrs. Joseph R. Gant today agreed to turn over approximately $43,400 in life insurance and property to the liquidating agent of the defunct Centropolis State Bank to offset part of the alleged defalcations of her deceased husband, who was president of the bank when it failed.

The settlement agreed to be made is a compromise to prevent a federal court suit, contemplated by the State Finance Commissioner.

Police raids without search warrants continued, regardless of the refusal of the prosecuting attorney to prosecute persons arrested in such raids, which he holds to be illegal.

Two private homes and a political club were among the places searched without warrants by police yesterday.

Acting on an anonymous letter asserting a still and a "small-sized brewery" were in a home at 903 Cass avenue, North Market street, police went there at 9 o'clock last night and knocked on the door.

Then, according to their report, they found an insecure window shutter, opened it and crawled in through the window. They seized 21 cases of supposed beer, two and one-half pints of supposed whiskey, numerous empty bottles, crocks and other articles.

"I have directed the chief of the Bureau of Investigation to select five foremost, competent and learned officers in the Navy to conduct a full investigation of the loss of the Shenandoah and to spare no pains and effort to ascertain the actual facts regarding the disaster. Witnesses will be placed under oath to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth and to be held in custody until they can be released."

Another Home Entered. Edward Fehr, 26 years old, of 222 Pardella avenue, St. Louis, was arrested yesterday at 4248 Chestnut avenue, in the Rock Springs Turner Hall. Prosecuting Attorney Fania said he had issued a search warrant for the building on representations by police that it was a one-story brick structure occupied exclusively by Wetel, whereas, in fact, it has three stories and several tenants.

The raiders reported finding a small quantity of beer in the basement, but Fania refused to issue a warrant against Wetel, because of the misrepresentation.

Police also made application to Fania for 28 search warrants, but only nine were issued. They were issued where police swore they had knowledge where liquor was, and were refused when police merely had suspicions.

Two Planes Sent From France for American Races. By the Associated Press.
PARIS, France, Sept. 10.—Two Breguet airplanes, which will be used in the races at Mitchell Field, on Long Island, in October, were dispatched to New York yesterday by the French liner Rochambeau.

Probationary Patrolman Abbott made two raids yesterday on a saloon at 1068 Tower Grove avenue, arresting the bartender, David Sweeney, and two other men.

A room in the rear of John Cudde's saloon at 2406 Cass avenue, which was locked, but police who visited at 7:10 p. m. reported they "found a key" and opened the locked door. They confiscated 285 bottles of supposed beer, and quantities of supposed beer and other articles.

Police reported they obtained permission from Adam Edl, saloon keeper, at 3801 Texas avenue, to search an adjoining room, in which they found 25 cases of supposed beer and 1½ gallons of alleged whiskey. Edl was arrested.

Buck Keenan Field. "Buck" Keenan was arrested in his cafe at 13 North Seventh street, when policemen reported finding a quart of whiskey and a bottle of gin in an icebox. August Rodenberg, saloon keeper, at 2326 Cherokee street, was arrested when about three blocks from the station he was intercepted by five men who led him into an alley and warned him against any outcry.

CREW OF MacMILLAN SHIP RESCUES DANISH SAILORS

Their Two Small Boats Swamped in Heavy Gale, Men Are Pulled Aboard the Peary by Towline.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—After battling an 18-mile gale and rescuing the crew of two small boats from the Island Tanka, a Danish naval vessel, the steamer Bowdoin, of the MacMillan Arctic expedition, has joined the Peary at Godthaab, Greenland.

A message to the National Geographic Society today of Springfield, Mass., vividly pictured the struggles of the Danish sailors, their rescue and deeds of heroism.

The crew of the Bowdoin and the Peary took part in the rescue, the men from the two boats which sank in the choppy waters of Godthaab Harbor being taken aboard the latter vessel.

The Irish, a Norwegian trawler which was in the harbor, broke from her anchorage and went ashore, the crew abandoning her, without loss of life.

"We are lying in harbor at Godthaab," MacMillan said, "a terrific gale struck tonight (Sept. 9). The wind is ranging between 70 and 80 miles an hour and at times greater. The Danish naval vessel, Island Tanka, is also in harbor with us. The harbor is well protected only on one side, where the Skaerhoj Mountain rises to a height of 3700 feet. The balance is comparatively exposed.

GOV. BAKER CRITICISED
BY MEDICAL JOURNAL

"Fatuous Excuses for Not Attacking Board of Health, Scandal" Assailed.

The September issue of the Journal of the Missouri State Medical Association, out today, contains an editorial criticizing Gov. Baker for his "lack of ability to grapple with a serious problem with boldness and decision" and for his "fatuous excuses for not attacking the Enloe-Horton-Board of Health scandal."

Caustic criticism is also made of Dr. Cortis F. Enloe, friend and political adviser of the Governor, who has been a member of the Board of Health since 1921 and was its secretary until February, 1935. "The trail he has left behind him is a nauseating one," says the editorial.

Dr. Enloe is a member of the Missouri State Medical Association and this is the first time in the history of the organization that its Journal has editorially attacked a member.

Dr. Walte Quoted.

The editorial contains lengthy quotations from the report of Dr. F. E. Walte of Cleveland, who made a medical survey of Missouri for the State Board, and in his report placed the blame for licensing quack doctors on the lax administration of Dr. Enloe as secretary of the board.

"Finding the personnel of the Board of Health office, including registrars, fairly free from political influences when he took charge in 1921," the editorial continues, "Dr. Enloe immediately injected politics into the management of the office and the appointment of registrars. So obnoxious was activity on his part that protests began to pour into the office of our association until upon our complaint the board took cognizance of the situation and somewhat curtailed this pernicious activity. His whole regime as secretary of the Board of Health was a disappointment and source of great distress to the medical profession and to others interested in the maintenance of high standards of medical practice and the administration of health laws."

"Severest Condemnation."

"If there were any doubts in the minds of persons familiar with the administration of the Health Department concerning the efficiency of Dr. Enloe as secretary of the State Board of Health, Dr. Walte's report shattered them. If Dr. Enloe is satisfied to let the records of the board speak for themselves, he is satisfied to accept the severest condemnation that an official document can express; namely, indifference and contempt of laws, rules and procedures to protect the health of the people."

As is known, Dr. Emmett P. North, president of the Board of Health, and Dr. James Stewart, secretary, demanded of Gov. Baker that he remove Dr. Enloe from the board for his alleged connection with Dr. R. H. Horton of Purdy, Mo., recently arrested on a charge of forgery in connection with the filling of applications of medical students for licenses to practice medicine. The Governor ignored

HERTENSTEIN RENEWS ROW WITH MILLER

Former Head of Efficiency
Board Replies to Mayor's
"Nasty Inference."

Charles Hertenstein, former chairman of the Efficiency Board, has sent to the National Civil Service Reform League, in New York, a reiteration of his charge that Mayor Miller has attempted to use the Efficiency Board to build up a personal machine. The Mayor's recent reply, in a brief note to the reform organization, was a statement that
"Hertenstein would have been discharged, had he remained much longer."

"His inference that there was cause for dismissal," Hertenstein says in his latest letter, "was obviously given to seek to prejudice whatever standing I may enjoy in the community, in retaliation for my having the temerity to expose his duplicity as an alleged champion of law enforcement. In that it is cowardly and unworthy of the occupant of the office of Mayor of our city."

"The work of the Efficiency Board was conducted in the manner prescribed by the law and up to the advent of Mr. Miller no influence of any kind, either by the former Mayor or any of his department heads, was sought to be used to evade the plain provisions of the charter. Your organization is familiar, from observations and visits of Mr. Tedford and others, with the work of the Efficiency
Board, and any attempt to belittle
that work by inferring that there was legal cause for my discharge
than the mere wave of the hand with which Mr. Miller seeks to dismiss the subject."

"I have no objection to a thorough investigation by your organization—in fact, I welcome it and will aid you in any way I can to ascertain the facts sought by you.
And that should be a sufficient answer to Mr. Miller's nasty inference."

BANKER SUED FOR $50,000

Woman's Attorney Says Couple, Engaged 26 Years Ago, Recently Met Again.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Charles Archer White, 55 years old, a banker, is defendant in a suit for $50,- 000 damages filed by Mrs. Eleanor
G. Carlton, 45, who alleges breach of promise.

Arthur H. Meads, her attorney, said the principals were engaged 26
years ago, but parental objections caused the girl to marry another.
Later she was divorced and again met White. They found their youthful romance had not faded and she assumed they would be married. But several weeks ago she found that White had married recently another woman, 20 years old, and the suit followed.

TAKES POISON AFTER REBUKE

Angered over the rebuke of her mother for giving a diamond ring
to her sweetheart to be repaired,
Betty Resnick, 18 years old, of 1341 Montclair avenue, swallowed poison
at 1 p. m. yesterday.

Her mother, Esther Resnick, told
the police that her daughter left home shortly after the argument.
After stopping at a drug store,
where she purchased the medicine,
throwing the bottle away after swallowing a part of the contents,
the girl went to the home of her friend, Ida Kaplan, 1123 North Thirteenth street, where she became ill. She was taken to city hospital, where her condition was pronounced serious.

Today's Health Hint

That "All Gone" Feeling

Don't think it's a serious thing if you often feel "all in." Chances are it is nothing worse than acid stomach. Most people who eat bread, starches and sweets are subject to it.

If always tired, headachy and peevish, or if you feel sort of poisoned and stuffy, just do this. What happens will amaze you.

Mix the juice of a lemon with two tablespoons of Mistrated Cream of Magnesia in half a glass of water. Take in morning or at bed time.

Soon you'll feel like another person. You'll be peppy, vigorous. That dragged out feeling goes. Bowels are open and the stomach sweet. Do it twice each week. Feel right all the time.

An inventory of the estate of Mrs. Mary E. Culver, benefactress of numerous charities, who died July 20, was filed in the Probate Court today by George O. Durham, attorney for D. C. McCabe, executor under the will.

Property valued at $662,627.51 is listed, consisting of Mrs. Culver's late residence at 5887 Cabanne avenue, appraised at $25,000, and the remainder in personal property. Her stocks in various corporations bear a total par value of $353,000, promissory notes $3800, United States Liberty Bonds and Treasury certificates, $186,065, cash $56,812.05 and chattels $109,446.

Among the stock listed in the estate are 2083 shares of the Majestic Manufacturing Co., having a par value of $228,800; $30,000 of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. where $35,000 of the Boatmen's Bank and $50,000 of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Mrs. Culver bequeathed the bulk of her estate to seven nieces and nephews. In her lifetime she gave more than $1,000,000 to charity, education and religion. She was the widow of L. L. Culver, one of the founders of the Majestic Manufacturing Co., and by which company McCabe, the executor of her will, was employed until recently as purchasing agent.

RAINFALL IN MISSOURI

Relief Reported at Hannibal, Columbia and Poplar Bluff.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Sept. 10.—There was general rainfall over Northeast Missouri last night. The local United States Weather Bureau reported .54 inch of rain and prospects for more tonight and tomorrow.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 10.—A thundershower last night, and a change of the direction of the wind to the north, brought at least temporary relief from the extreme heat in Columbia. The precipitation, however—1.3 of an inch—was of small benefit to the drought-stricken vegetation.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 10.—The prolonged dry spell in this locality was relieved by almost an inch of rain last night.

POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Sept. 10.—The first rain in three weeks fell here last night.

HERRIN, Ill., Sept. 10.—Rain, preceded by a severe windstorm which did some damage, fell here last night. It was the heaviest recorded here since last winter.

FARM CHILDREN AS PUPILS

Iowa Country-Bred Children Given High Rating in Schools.

In Iowa it is a good fortune to be the child of a farmer in so far as those abilities and attitudes which make for superior scholarship in high school are concerned. Bulletin, 1923, No. 44, of the U. S. Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior, gives the results of a study of distinguished high school pupils of Iowa. Facts were obtained for 316 high school seniors who were rated as distinguished pupils. Of the 316 pupils earning this rating 172 were children of farmers. This is 54 per cent of the total number. The farm population constitutes only 41 per cent of the total population of the State, so it is evident that the farm-bred children secure a higher representation among distinguished high school seniors than their numbers would lead one to expect. From all the facts presented in the complete study the general conclusion is reached that superior students in Iowa high schools come from country homes where they have the advantage of both town or city and country life.

Sisters in Auto Killed by Train.

WAHDO, Neb., Sept. 10.—Sisters Mrs. Emma Stigge and Alma Stigge, were killed, and their husbands, Henry and John Stigge, brothers, were injured when their automobile crashed into a freight train yesterday. They did not see the train because of side curtains.

How to Stop Sour Stomach

Chronic With Many People—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Bring Quick Comfort—Sweeten and Stop Acid, Sour Risings and Such Dyspeptic Distress.

When the fact is considered that even careful people, those who follow diet rules, get attacks of indigestion, no argument is needed to recommend the most reliable relief. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used by lawyers, doctors, teachers, by men, high lives, society women, industrial workers, clerks and the general abused stomachs in the world, those of a host of travelers.

For thirty years people have learned that they may eat what they like and what is set before them, and no matter what the condition of the stomach, if they take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, they give the stomach the alkaline effect which sweetens acidity after eating or else they quickly relieve it. Be fortified. Get a solvent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and arm yourself against indigestion.

Fifty Years Helping Men to "Come Back"

Half a century ago, Dr. Leslie E. Keeley announced that Drink and Drug habits were physical maladies, and must be treated as such with rest, care and proper medicines.

In his lifetime, Dr. Keeley returned thousands of happy men and women to their homes—entirely free from the thrall of Drink and Drugs.

The Keeley Institute at Dwight, Illinois, has continued the same work in the same manner—with the same happy results. Absolutely no restraint, no bad after effects. ## DROUTH LOSS IN STATE $3,000,000 A DAY

Observers Say Weather Is Most Severe and Prolonged of Kind Since 1913.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 10.—
clared by Department of Agriculture observers to be the most severe and prolonged of its kind since 1913, has been causing damage estimated at more than $3,000,000 a day in Missouri during the last week, officials said today. In some sections of Southern Missouri the drouth is reported to be the most severe in 25 years. Last night's rain was not enough to relieve conditions materially.

A report on Missouri crop conditions, made public by E. A. Logan, of the United States Bureau of Agriculture, and Secretary Jewel Mayes of the State Board of Agriculture, stated that crop prospects had declined greatly since the middle of August. The late corn crop in the southern half of the State is "burned up," it was stated, and late corn in the northern half of the State is badly wilted and the crop prematurely ripened. Early corn has been damaged little, although the stalks are badly
"burned" in some sections and virtually valueless for fodder purposes.

No Estimate of Total.
Officials of the Department of Agriculture declined to make an estimate of the total crop damage,
but stated the estimate of $3,000-000 damage a day in the past week was conservative. A week ago the damage was estimated at approximately $1,000,000 a day. Hot winds were blowing in Central Missouri
today that will cause further damage, it was stated.

The high temperature reported today by the Government station
here was 103 degrees.
Heaviest damage from the prolonged dry weather has been in sections of Southern Missouri. A belt including Miller, Camden, Henton, St. Clair, Hickory, Vernon, and parts of Bates, Henry, Morgan, Pulaski, Dallas, Polk, Cedar and Barton counties have been hard hit.
Some parts of this belt have not had a hard rain since late in May.
In some parts of this belt forest
trees are dying from the heat, according to department experts. Several counties in Southeast Missouri,
including Ripley, Butler, Dunklin, Pemiscot and parts of Oregon, Carter, Stoddard and New Madrid, have suffered severely from the drouth.

Corn Crop 80 Per Cent.
The report issued today places
condition of the Missouri corn crop
at 80 per cent of normal, indicating a total yield of 202,290,000 bushels in 1925, against a yield of 170,612,000 bushels last year. The acreage this year totals 6,890,000, compared to 6,562,000 acres in 1924.

Rains during the middle of August in Northern Missouri prevented serious damage to the corn crop in that section of the State. Pastorage has been ruined by the drouth in the southern part of the State, and wells in many sections are drying up, it was reported. In some places stock has been shipped out, because of lack of pasturage
and dwindling water supply.

THOMAS' PLAY ON DRY LAW POKES FUN AT CONGRESS

One of Characters Is Boot-legger Who Sells Liquor to Almost Everyone in Senate Building.

By DAVID LAWRENCE,
A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The first public caricature of members of Congress with respect to the prohibition problem has made its appearance in the national capital in the form of a play just opened in which Augustus Thomas, author of the comedy, plays the leading role. Thomas, as a United States Senator who is threatened and coerced in order to get his vote for a dry appropriation, endeavors to expose the methods by which the "drys" have achieved their strength in Congress.

There is a rather interesting plot woven around the prohibition question, but of the several hundred people who attended the play last night, many high in official life reluctantly admitted that Thomas had not resorted entirely to fiction and that many of the things said and done were all too true.

It is significant that a play boldly attacking the Volstead law and making a subtle argument for light wines and beer as opposed to whiskey should be produced at all. Judging from the applause given the play at different times when telling points against prohibition were made, producers feel confident the question is at least debatable and that opinion is not all one-sided.

Wayne Wheeler Objects.

Wayne H. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, thought enough of the incident to issue a statement attacking the production. A play is sometimes an effective means of influencing public opinion. Galeworthy's "Justice" started a movement in England which materially changed the prison system in that country.

Whether the play written by Thomas will have any such effect depends, of course, not on the theme, but on the skillfulness of the actors and the interest which the plot awakes with the public. Perhaps Washington is far more interested in this type of play than is the outside world. Anyway the setting is one that is not unfamiliar.

As for the bootlegger in the play who calmly admits that he has sold liquor "to almost everybody in the Senate Office Building" and lines himself up with the prohibitionists because he fears a modification of the Volstead act will hurt his business, the author has undoubtedly taken seriously some of the rumors and charges that have been made from time to time as to the habits of members of Congress who are personally "wet" but politically "dry."

It may be true with respect to a small minority. The theory advanced by the men who admit they themselves do not believe in prohibition is that they are merely instruments of their constituency and that if they care to stay in office to represent their districts or states they must follow the wishes of the majority of their constituents.

Arguments in Play.

Thomas has a somewhat "talky" part, but he manages to get in all the arguments against prohibition, such as the corruption of Federal officials, the effects on the younger generation, the bootlegging in seaplanes, and the general wave of crime and "bootlegging" in China, men and dope that has developed alongside of prohibition.

Anyway it's too bad hardly any members of Congress are here, for the play might have resulted in an interesting controversy. Some members might have insisted that it was unfair to the Senate and demanded its suppression in the District of Columbia. Others might have taken it as a huge joke on themselves. Others might have blandly predicted that, except for "wet" regions like New York City, it had little chance to win large audiences in the great open spaces where prohibition has long been a closed incident politically.

There isn't any doubt that there is a "dry lobby" and the way it operates to prevent the nomination and election of members of Congress who are unfavorable to prohibition is one of the phases of the whole problem on which the public has little information. While the play has probably exaggerated this in some respects it has a chance, if it succeeds at all, to focus attention on how Congress is really influenced for or against the Volstead law.

Interest of Audience Held.

There is no attempt in the play to conceal the purpose, but just the same it held the interest of the audience last night. It may be the novelty of the performance or it may be the distinguished author who returns after many years of absence from the stage itself to play the principal part.

Anyway, if the play is a success from a theatrical standpoint, it has in it elements that will make it the subject of vehement attack by the prohibitionists from one end of the country to the other.

Says Thomas, "I Present Case Against Prohibition."

Re the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Augustus Thomas and his new play, "Still Waters," came in for praise last night from G. C. Hinckley, national secretary of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, after it had drawn criticism from Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League. Thomas has returned to the stage after an absence of a quarter of a century to take the part in his play of a United States Senator who votes one way and drinks another. Wheeler described the play as "propaganda" and predicted its early failure on that ground, but Hinckley praised it for "dealing with the corruption and rottenness attending the prohibition amendment."

"So far as we know, 'Still Waters' is the first play to be staged which adequately presents the case against prohibition," said Hinckley, while Wheeler asserted that the playwright had "become blinded by passion to the emergency of the nation."

Fourth List of Corporation Income Taxes

THE fourth list of corporations in St. Louis District, which paid an income tax of $1000 or more on their 1924 profits, is published herewith.

Corporation income tax is levied at the rate of 12 1/2 per cent, with no surtax, and the only exemption is a $2000 allowance for those showing a net profit less than $25,000. The amount of tax, multiplied by 8, will equal the corporation's profit for the year, in cases where the corporation's profit was $25,000 or more. Thus, a corporation which paid $10,000 tax made $80,000 in the year.

The corporations, and their income tax assessments, follow:

ADAPTO SHOES for STOUT WOMEN

The best that an advertisement can do is to give you the facts!

Here are the facts (well worth your knowing) about ADAPTO Shoes: First, they are designed especially for stout women. That's why ADAPTOS are so comfortable. They provide narrow heel fittings, high arch support and room for the toes and ball of the foot.

Next, being specialized, ADAPTO footwear does not present the ungraceful appearance of the large size numbers of so-called "style shoes". ADAPTOS are always obtainable in correct representation of the fashionable mode.

Finally, you can get ADAPTO Shoes in all sizes up to 11, width AAA to EEE—assuring perfect fit in any model you select.

These are the facts. Won't you stop in and find out, for yourself, how they work out!

If you suffer from any manner of foot ailment, visit our Foot Service Department for a free consultation. This completely equipped department is the only one of its kind in this city and is under constant supervision of our foot specialist. Our service also includes the professional supervision of shoe fittings free upon request.

Woman Swallows Poison at Hotel. Betty Wilson, 20 years old, swallowed poison yesterday afternoon in her room at the Orpheum Hotel, 823 Chestnut street. She was found lying on the bed by a negro porter at 1 p. m. and taken to City Hospital, where her condition was pronounced serious. She refused to make a statement to the police, but requested that a friend, Betty Maxie of 2535 Olive street, be notified.

POLICEMAN SAYS HE WAS BESET BY TRIO

Exchanged Blows With Man, Wife and Brother, Clayton Officer Says.

The details of a fight in which a Clayton policeman, an insurance agent, his wife and her brother are said to have participated will be laid before Justice of the Peace Stecker Monday, when the agent, Orville Ellis, 22 years old, is tried on a charge of common assault.

Ellis, who resides at 7724 Forsyth boulevard, was arrested by Patrolman Jack Reither of the Clayton force at 4 p. m. Monday. Reither reported that earlier in the day while he was doing traffic duty at Bonhomme and Meramec streets, Clayton, Ellis and Mrs. Ellis had driven past his corner and Ellis had insisted on taking a left turn, which had been abolished for the day because of heavy Labor Day traffic.

Policeman's Story. "I was at Central and Forsyth avenues at 4 p. m. when Ellis passed in his car," Reither said. "I called for him to speed up, as he was slowing traffic. Instead he stopped and came up to me on foot."

According to Reither, Ellis asked what right the policeman had to order him about. One word led to another and blows were struck. Reither reported Mrs. Ellis came to the aid of her husband, pulled the policeman's badge from his coat and struck him. He arrested Ellis.

As he crossed the courthouse lawn with his prisoner, he said, he was accosted by Raymond Falzone, brother of Mrs. Ellis. When Falzone challenged him to fight he complied, Reither said. The combatants were separated by bystanders.

Ellis Only One Booked. Only Ellis was booked on the assault charge. While Mrs. Ellis did not comment on the affair today, her father, F. J. Falzone, who has lived in Clayton for 20 years and has an insurance office there, declared that from his daughter's statement the policeman had overstepped his authority.

"The policeman was the aggressor," he said. "What could my daughter do but go to the assistance of her husband? In the later fight my son did not offer to fight the officer until Reither had struck him."

MRS. BELASCO'S CUSTOMS FINE Assessed $1488 for Undeclared Apparel.

Investigation of her luggage revealed undeclared apparel valued at $660, customs officials said.

This is the fourth of a series of articles on the proposed Van Sweringen railroad merger and the probable effect of the outcome on our proposed mergers.

By JOHN E. MITCHELL.
The opposition of the Chesapeake & Ohio minority to the Van Sweringen consolidation began with its refusal to accept the terms offered for exchange of stock, forced by personal pique at the manner in which negotiations were carried on. As the hearing has grown, it now appears as a righteous fight against the whole idea of a merger.

Col. Anderson, counsel for the minority, has indicated two additional reasons against this consolidation. He undoubtedly will add to them in his closing argument before the Interstate Commerce Commission. He has tried to bring out that the Van Sweringens are not men to be given this vast road system. He has questioned their financial history, their relationship to the late A. H. Morgan, and on their trading experience, all three recent phases, in general of the set of facts.

Finally he insists there is no financial or physical reason in the interest to include the Chesapeake &amp; Ohio in the proposed Nickel Plate system.

Argued Before I. C. C. Van Sweringens' replies have been awaited now for weeks before Interstate Commerce Commission and in the newspapers. As the hearing has been delayed by the pressure of half-digested evidence, claims and counter-claims.

The question of the ratio of exchange of the Chesapeake &amp; Ohio for the securities of the proposed system is extremely complicated, and in the final analysis, a matter of financial judgment. Any brief statement is likely to be misleading.

In a quiet picture, you hold shares of Chesapeake &amp; Ohio common. Your neighbor owns 100 shares of Erie common. Under terms of the exchange, you will receive 55 shares of preferred stock proposed Nickel Plate, and shares of common. Your neighbor for his Erie, will receive 40 shares of the new common.

Now you have been receiving $4 a share on your C. &amp; O. stock as a dividend, or $400 a year. The Van Sweringens propose to pay 6 per cent on the stock, both common and preferred. Your income by the consolidation will consequently be $240, an increase of $40 a year. Your neighbor has not received any dividends on his Erie common, and there has seemed no immediate prospect of his receiving anything. His income is now $0.

Earnings Get Better. According to O. P. Van Sweringen's own statement, which took account of bond conversion, the earnings for the year 1935 on the standing common stock were $12 and $14 per share. Half of which, by a conservative estimate, was available as dividends in 1934 and the six months of 1935 earnings have been even better. Our income has increased anyway, even without your consolidation. And by testimony, the Erie could not be expected to pay dividends on its preferred stock "earlier than four or five years from this date," let alone on the common.

But, return the spokesmen for Van Sweringen, the Chesapeake &amp; Ohio is almost exclusively a coal carrier. The Erie is of the right now in progress between the union miners and the owners over the Jacksonville, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. Your argument attempts to capitalize a temporary condition, the union coal fields begin mining again, where will your income earnings be? The Erie great trunk line with diversified traffic.

The minority answers that a substantial portion of the Erie's income is derived from its anthracite mines, by Van Sweringen's own statement, $5,000,000. Look at the Erie's situation.

Authorities Can't Agree. The minority cannot hope to present a case or just picture. For instance, the Erie has a very broad foundation, and needs a great deal of money to get on its feet. Before dividends are possible, the C. &amp; O. does. Nor is even the part of the minority's answer upon comparison with the Van Sweringens' stock. The ramifications of the Erie are endless, and well-informed and apparently sincere answers on railroad securities had adopted the ### Sweringens Discount Recent Prosperity Shown by Chesapeake & Ohio Road Nickel Plate Interests Cite Unstability of Soft Coal Situation in Argument Against Bet- ter Terms for Exchange of Stock.

This is the fourth of a series of editorials on the proposed Van Sweringen railroad merger and the probable effect of the outcome on the proposed mergers.

By JOHN E. MITCHELL.

The opposition of the Chesapeake & Ohio minority to the Van Sweringen consolidation began at its refusal to accept the terms offered for exchange of stock, for which the minority is now making a personal plea at the hands of the majority. As the hearing has progressed, this opposition has grown and it now appears as righteous indignation against the whole idea of a merger.

Anderson, counsel for the minority, has indicated two additional reasons against this consolidation. He undoubtedly will address them in his closing argument before the Interstate Commerce Commission. He has tried to bring to the attention of the public the fact that the Van Sweringens are not men to be given this vast road system. He has questioned them on their financial history, their relationship to the late A. H. Morgan, and on their business experience, all three of which are in general, of the best of fact.

When, and if, the Nickel Plate merger is completed the Van Sweringens will be in absolute control of 9,000 miles of railroad. Upon them will depend its financial future. Fifteen years ago, when they were turning 30, the Van Sweringens, already in control of the Shaker Heights, were endeavoring to provide it with the rapid transit facilities which were to make it so immensely valuable. By a characteristically brilliant stroke they had acquired a neglected gully, Kingsbury Run, extending from the Cleveland Public Square in the direction of their holdings, upon which they realized they could construct a no-grade, double-track, high-speed line, to bring Shaker Heights within 15 minutes of the square. This they had undertaken to do.

The same jealousy among the three great Eastern railroads which has prevented consolidation in this district was at that time depriving Cleveland of an adequate railroad station. The Van Sweringens conceived the plan of purchasing one of the roads to share their private way of and help them build a joint stub terminal on the Public Square. Oria recently told on the witness stand a delightful story of how he and his brother in 1899 sat out long hours in the anteroom of the general offices of the Baltimore & Ohio in Baltimore, and had their journey for their pains.

Meet Alfred H. Smith. This was the situation when, three or four years afterwards, the Van Sweringens first met the late Alfred H. Smith of the New York Central. His family owned a 400-acre farm on the edge of Shaker Heights, which they wished to buy. They found out when he was in to town and went to see him. He was hurrying for a train, but attracted by the boys, he stopped to inquire sympathetically about their hopes.

They hired an automobile, whirled him out to inspect their private right-of-way, and rushed him back to his train. He never lost sight of them after that, and soon the idea of the Cleveland Union Terminal, the subject of so many acrimonious discussions in the present hearing, was born.

In 1918, Smith sold the two boys the Nickel Plate. The deal, the Nickel Plate, the shortest line between Buffalo and Chicago, is a single track road built by United States Senator Calvin S. Brice of Ohio who had intended to build it, of selling it to Cornelius Vanderbilt of the Central, the tracks of which it mostly parallels for a fancy price. The New York Central bought and it remained an orphan child of that road.

Price Was $8,500,000. The terms offered the Van Sweringens were $8,500,000—$2,000,000 cash and the remainder in 10 notes covering as many years as $850,000 each. The Van Sweringens raised $520,000 cash for their original payment and pledged their real estate holdings with various business men and institutions in Cleveland for the balance of the $2,000,000.

"It has been the subject of some public comment," Oris Van Sweringen testified before the Interstate Commerce Commission, "that while buying the railroad we did not have $8,500,000 or anything like that amount, and therefore we must have represented someone else. The 'someone else' was the fact that we had not really sold the property to us at all, but had turned it over to us and that we were the 'little butchers' so to speak, of that railroad."

The statement that the New York Central was "obliged to sell the property" refers to political agitation of that time against parallel railroads being under a single control. In apparent defiance of the trust law.

GERMAN KU KLUX QUARTERS RAIDED BY BERLIN POLICE

Forty Members of "Knights of Fiery Cross" Arrested—American Organizers Arrested.

ORDER FORMED FOR WAR AGAINST JEWS

Documents Show It Was Initiated Under Instructions From Atlanta—Branches in Many Cities.

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, Sept. 10.—Two Americans, father and son, alleged to be behind the recent organization here of the "Knights of the Fiery Cross"—patterned after the Ku Klux Klan—have been arrested by the German police in Silesia. They are Otto Strohscheln, 54, and Gotthard Strohscheln, 30, both German-born but now American citizens and recently residents of Chicago.

A third American, Don Burton Gray, 21, of Hillsboro, Ill., is said to have left Germany three weeks ago and to be in Chicago now. Papers found by the police indicate that branches of the order exist in Hamburg, Jena, Dortmund and Cassel, and that the founding of the organization dates back to 1923.

A complete list of the members of the organization was discovered in raids here and the police in the larger cities of Germany have been instructed to arrest all persons on this roster.

It is alleged by the investigating authorities that the organization was financed with funds supplied from Klan circles in America. It held its meetings in various restaurants in Northern and Western Berlin.

It seems that the order, which was founded two years ago played an active role in the revolt of the so-called Black Reichswehr in 1923 in the fortified towns of Ruerstern and Spandau.

The leaders of the order already arrested include a former captain, named Klippbroth, who was found near the Dutch frontier as he was about to enter Holland in an automobile, a former lieutenant, Hildebrand, and a Dr. Huebner.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World. Copyright, 1925, by the Press and Publishing Co. (New York World and Post-Dispatch).

BERLIN, Sept. 10.—Police already have arrested German converts of the Klan, after a surprise raid upon their headquarters. The organization is labeled "The Knights of the Fiery Cross." Documents seized show that the American ceremony of initiation was observed that in several cases the oath was sworn upon the American flag as well as that of the German monarchists, red, white and black with swastika emblem.

The German Klan is "an imperial tribunal" of "warriors for the Fatherland and against Jews." The Vikingbund and the Frontkappeler, two Fascist organizations, were united in brotherly communion with the order. Members were compelled to buy not only the usual nightgown, but wore they would "suffer the death of a martyr" if found guilty of treason to the Klan.

The police have in their possession evidence sufficient to arrest a German member of the Klan on charges of participation in a secret conspiracy aimed at the welfare of the State.

It is understood the American organ of the Klan, the "Imperial Wizard" from the German knights as is customary in America. Documents show that the American organizers formed the Berlin branch under instructions from Atlanta.

Surnames for Turks. LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Turkish Department of Education, according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Constantinople, has ordered all Turks to adopt surnames. Free choice is to be allowed in the selection of the names, provided they are not those of historic figures.

od of continuing in the control of the property. "Our relations with the New York Central people have always been pleasant. We are probably better known to them because of late transactions than we are to some other railroads who are also our competitors, but I hope it is not necessary for us to quarrel with them to establish that this 'little brother' idea is unfounded in fact."

'NO PROFIT' IN PASSENGERS, SAYS RAIL PRESIDENT

Head of Northern Pacific Declares Lines Are Losing Short-Haul Business to Busses.

OPPOSES PLAN TO POOL EARNINGS

Another Rail Official Tells of Heavy Freight Traffic Carriers Are Now Handling.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Railroads of the West are making "absolutely no profit" from their passenger service, President Charles Donnelly of the Northern Pacific Railroad declared at the Western Railroads freight rate hearing before Chairman Clyde B. Atchison of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

President Donnelly told yesterday of the inroads of private automobile and busses.

"Short haul business," he said, "is going more and more to busses. And what we have lost there is no likelihood of recovering."

In 1919, he said, the Northern Pacific carried 9,336,000 passengers and earned $20,000,000 by it, but in 1924 the number of passengers had dropped to 3,607,000, and the revenue was only $13,000,000.

"Trucks," he added, "have not yet become the menace they will be."

Against Pooling Plan. Asked by John E. Benton, chief counsel for the National Association of Railroad and Utility Commissioners, what he thought of the plan to pool the proposed five per cent freight rate increase, he then divided the proceeds among the weaker roads, Donnelly said:

"I do not think the plan is workable. I think it is socialistic and impossible, and that it would introduce into the American railroad industry Government ownership, which it is put forward ostensibly to avoid."

Various shippers' representatives asked Donnelly why the freight traffic should bear the burden of passenger traffic. He answered that experts had decided that passenger service was paying all it should pay, and that the Northwestern lines probably would never ask for increased passenger rates.

Can't Increase Rates. "Advances in freight rates," he added, "is the only alternative. If a way could be devised to distribute the burden equally between the two classes it should be brought forward. But it is not possible to increase passenger rates."

Benton charged that higher rates on wheat would put American farmers under an additional handicap, as compared with Canadian farmers, in entering the world market, because Canada has lower land values and lower freight rates.

Freight Traffic Heavy. President R. H. Ashton, of the American Railway Association today described the conditions of the roads as the best they have ever been.

"So far in 1925," Ashton said, "the railroads of the country have handled a larger number of cars than at any time in the past. Loads of freight ever transported in any similar period of time, and with this peak traffic the carriers are operating with the greatest economy and efficiency ever shown."

Security honors of the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway, now in receivership, are compelled to devote their money invested in that road to public service without compensation. W. H. Bremner, receiver of the line, said:

"Had it not been for the heavy reductions in freight rates made by the Interstate Commerce Commission since 1920 the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway would not now be in the hands of the court," he said.

KING BORIS.

Bulgarian Ruler Swings From Running Board of Auto and Seizes Bridle.

By the Associated Press. SOFIA, Bulgaria, Sept. 10.—King Boris today jumped from a moving automobile and stopped a team of runaway horses, probably saving the lives of several children.

The incident occurred on the road between Shumen and Kaspik. Seeing the team approaching out of control, the young sovereign shouted to his chauffeur to stop, but before the latter comprehended, the horses were close at hand.

Boris jumped to the running board of his car, swung off, seized the bridle of one of the horses and hung on until he had brought the team to a stop.

In the course of a speech last night at memorial services for the 14 officers and men who lost their lives on the Shenandoah, Congressman Newton declared that "too many pacifists in the United States" had resulted in curtailment of congressional military appropriations.

The services were held at the home of Jackson Johnson Jr., Post of the American Legion at 4160 Lindell boulevard. Other speakers were Charles M. Hay, an attorney; Capt. Chester Davis of Jefferson Barracks and Capt. Ralph C. Lawder and Commander Fred G. Abeken, representing the Navy.

Relatives of Everett P. Allen and Ralph T. Joffrey of St. Louis and of William Howard Spratley of Venice, Ill., who were killed, attended the services.

The coal dealers are here to form the fuel research institute. They came from Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Kentucky and Ohio.

FRENCH TROOPS ATTACK RIFFIANS ON ENTIRE FRONT

Tribal Leader Sent Reinforcements to Meet Spanish Attack, Relieving Pressure on French.

SPANIARDS STARTED FORWARD MOVEMENT

Riffian Commander Did Not Believe Hostile Force Could Land in Alhucemas Bay.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, Sept. 10.—Le Matin says the French offensive against the Riffians in Morocco has begun in earnest. After a preparatory bombardment yesterday the troops attacked en masse along the entire front today.

PEZ, French Morocco, Sept. 10.—As the Spaniards had led the way by their landing in Alhucemas Bay and started a push forward toward Marshal Petain and Gen. Naulin were at work yesterday putting the final touches to their plans of action.

In French circles here it was said that the Spanish demonstration in the Bay of Alhucemas has been a shock to Abd-el-Krim, the Riffian war lord, as he did not believe that the Spaniards could land. He is said to be rushing reinforcements from other parts of the line. This fact, together with the energetic reaction of the French troops, is asserted to have had the effect of relieving the pressure of the tribesmen against the French front in the Ouezzan zone.

The tribesmen, however, still are active in the center of the region between Taza and around Djebel Nahr on the East, but two strong columns under Gens. Pruneau and Billotte, it is understood, are about to start an operation between Taza and Temoval in an effort to clean up the Riffians on the central section of the line.

Purpose of Campaign Is to Encircle Riffians. PARIS, Sept. 10.—If all the Spanish and French plans mature, Abd-el-Krim will be caught between two pairs of pincers, one catching him at Adjir. Trapped between Adjir and the French moving north from the Branes river, where a strong column is massed, they would lose control of the Ouezzan and the region behind Melilla.

The other pair of pincers is designed to cut off the Riff's next strongest support, the Djebela tribesmen, Rasoul's old supporters. They are heading the mountain behind Tangier, keeping open important communication to Tangier. With the general French offensive forcing Abd-el-Krim to protect every front simultaneously, it is believed the Djebela will not hold out alone.

The Franco-Spanish object is to encircle Abd-el-Krim between the important centers, Adjir and Chechouan, cutting off his supplies and moving him in barren mountains, isolated except for the guarded coast line and mountain trails ahead behind Adjir. They intend only to regions occupied by the French or Spanish.

CONCENTRATION OF POWER

Invention Carrying Electric Energy Said to Slip Into Pocket.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 10.—A scientific discovery that may have a revolutionary effect on industry is claimed by A. F. Joffe of the Academy of Science.

Experimenting in his own laboratory, Joffe says, he succeeded in obtaining a tremendous concentration of electric energy in a very small object. The accumulator which he constructed and charged with energy "sufficient to drive the most powerful motor car for 10 days" is small enough to go into a waistcoat pocket.

He declares his experiments show the possibility of still greater concentration of electrical energy, and expresses the hope that it soon may be possible to apply the discovery to general industry on a large scale.

Publication for Debt Agreement.

By the Associated Press. BRUSSELS, Belgium, Sept. 10.—Publication of the agreement reached at Washington for the funding of Belgium's debt to the United States is to be hastened to quiet the many fantastic rumors and erroneous interpretations circulated here. The American Ambassador, William Phillips, and Minister of Finance Janssen have agreed upon this as the wisest course and have arranged for simultaneous publication of the text in Brussels and Washington, the date to be fixed by the United States.

COAL MINES THE REMNANT OF GREAT STINNES FORTUNE

Once Vast Holdings Have Shrunk Since German Magnate's Death Due to Family Dissensions.

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, Sept. 10.—There has recently been world-wide curiosity as to whether the children of the late Hugo Stinnes would succeed in emulating the example of the "five Frankfurters" as the five Rothschilds of Frankfurt became known because of their success in conserving the family unity and fortune.

This curiosity now is rewarded by a spectacle which reveals the quickly accumulated estate of Stinnes, Germany's great industrialist, in forced liquidation and his family tightly in the clutches of a banking syndicate to which it is heavily indebted for money loaned, originally for six months, to save Stinnes' "industrial empire."

Already Stinnes' banks, iron works, hotels, real estate, steamships, electrical plants, coke and iron and steel concerns, and the apple of the dead man's eye, the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, have been sold but the family still has a Muehlheim coal mines in which Stinnes started on the way to wealth.

"Stick Together" "Stick together and stand by mother!" This was the admonition of Hugo Stinnes as he lay dying in April of last year to his sons and daughters gathered at the bedside. He had in mind a family union for the protection of his vast and varied interests—valued at many millions of dollars.

But in less than a year of his passing the injunction became an ignominiously discarded, family shibboleth, due to conflicting opinions between the three sons and the widow, and soon the great estate became entangled in a web of financial difficulties which culminated in the present liquidation.

Intimate friends of Stinnes aver that he saw such an eventuality as disagreement among his sons who were to assume reign over his great holdings under the direction of their mother, the sole legatee.

They point out as proof of this that the will of Stinnes provided for such an emergency as conflicting opinions by designating the second son, Hugo Jr., as executive director of the estate, in case Dr. Edmund Stinnes, the eldest, who was the original director, and the third son, Otto, could not agree.

Hugo Jr., the Favorite Hugo Jr., was the father's favorite during the years in which the magnate was constructing his far-flung industrial and commercial empire. Constantly he was at his side.

Edmund withdrew to devote himself to the automobile and insurance end of his father's holdings. His action was followed by the banks taking charge of the Stinnes properties which they held as collateral for loans. Then came the forced liquidation.

Where is some speculation as to whether the banks will save to the family the Stinnes coal mines at Muehlheim which have been in its possession for three generations and which formed the foundation of the Stinnes fortune, or whether these pits also will be put upon the common auction block along with the other possessions of the dead financial giant.

"Supermen," such as Nietzsche saw them, would have been required to administer the industrial and commercial realm acquired by the late Hugo Stinnes," is the comment of one of the Rhenish newspapers on what it terms "the tragedy of the house of Stinnes." This newspaper assumes that if Stinnes the elder still were alive he would have succeeded in adapting himself to the altered economic and financial conditions which were brought about by the stabilization of the German currency.

ADDITIONAL SECURITY PACT DEMANDED BY LITTLE ENTENTE

Smaller League of Nations Members Led in Movement by Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Copyright, 1925, by the Press and Publishing Co. (New York World and Post-Dispatch).

GENEVA, Sept. 10.—The serious obstacles of which Secretary Chamberlain of Britain repeatedly referred to in connection with the security pact negotiations, developed yesterday. Apparently negotiations are being conducted simultaneously in the Little Entente, aiming toward a corollary pact connected with that of Britain, France, Belgium, and Germany or to be signed simultaneously.

Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia and Skrzynski of Poland are leading the movement in which Benes, admittedly the brainiest statesman among the smaller nations of the League of Nations, is the prime factor.

Although trial balloons already have been released by the French to feel out the situation, the British have made it known they are unalterably opposed to encumbering the western front security pact with any riders which would imperil its successful consummation.

Foreign Ministers Briand, Chamberlain, Vandervelde and Vittorio (the Italian delegate) have interviewed the legal experts, Henri Promagot and Sir Cecil Hurst and studied the report of the jurists conference just held in London. On this report discussions with German Foreign Minister Stresemann, if held, will be based. It is agreed that an early conference with the Germans is most advisable but no move will be made until the reaction in Berlin becomes evident.

CONTRACTORS TO STUDY BUILDING COSTS IN CITIES

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A study of costs and methods in building construction in all parts of the country will be started this month by five groups of contractors representing the Associated General Contractors of America. Attention will be directed by the contractors to private and public programs in large cities with a view to eliminating certain practices which the contractors believe result in inflated costs.

They also will investigate construction work by Government units without competitive bids.

Each of the five groups will have a separate itinerary. One group will leave Minneapolis Sept. 25, going to Des Moines, Chicago, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Little Rock, Ark., and Oklahoma City.

House To Be Monroe Museum.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The brick house at Prince and Lafayette streets in lower Manhattan where President Monroe died will be converted into a Monroe museum. Joseph A. Fusco, an architect, has filed plans for placing the building on a new site about 100 feet from its present situation.

Financial Conference in London.

Copyright, 1925, by the Press and Publishing Co. (New York World and Post-Dispatch).

LONDON, Sept. 10.—A secret and important meeting of Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, Benjamin Strong, governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Seymour Parker Gilbert, agent general of reparations in Berlin, and Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the German Reichsbank, took place here Monday, the correspondent was authoritatively informed.

It is understood the bankers discussed the past and prospective workings of the Dawes plan, final position of the Reichsbank, and the question of future Anglo-American loans to the Reichsbank and private German commercial interests.

HALF INTEREST IN BUSINESS SOLD TO TOO MANY PERSONS

D. V. Hill Arrested by Postal Inspectors on Complaint of 3 Supposed Partners.

Alleging that D. V. Hill sold the same half interest in his real estate business to three different men, receiving a cash payment from each, postoffice inspectors arrested him yesterday in the office in the International Life Building, where he rents desk room, and will ask a warrant on a charge of using the mails to further a scheme to defraud.

Hill, the inspectors say, advertised some weeks ago in local newspapers for a partner. Stephen Syfan of 3505 Franklin avenue reported he bought a half interest for $1000, paying $50 in cash and the balance in notes. Roy Jones of Maplewood said he paid $1500, of which $100 was in cash and $1400 in notes. G. Blumenthal of 4211A Linton avenue declared that he paid $250 cash and gave notes for $750.

The three complainants said they discovered there were too many half interests when two of them met in Hill's office while Hill was away. They discovered also that he did not have the whole office, but rented desk room there. The postoffice inspectors took jurisdiction in the case because of the allegation that Hill had advertised in the newspapers which are sent through the mails.

Search for Airmen Abandoned. PARIS, Sept. 10.—Hope has been abandoned for the French airmen, Fernand Laporte and Henri Priol, and their three assistants, who were lost at sea Sunday in a hydroplane competition between the south coast of France and the coast of Corsica. Search for the missing men has ceased. A British steamer has reported to the Navy Department the finding of a float bearing a number which enabled it to be identified as belonging to Priol's seaplane.

No Policeman and Jail Empty. ABERDEEN, S. D., Sept. 10.—The town of Isabel challenges any community in the nation to meet its distinction. It has no peace officer. The city jail has not had an inmate since a wounded circus hand was kicked off a train and was found dying near the town 10 years ago. He was cared for in the jail till he died.

Don't Worry about Gray

This Clean, Colorless Liquid Will Restore the Original Shade

Thousands of people have quickly banished grayness and have restored the original shade to their hair with the remarkable preparation known as Kolor-Bak. Physicians and scientists know that gray hair is hair that has ceased to receive its normal supply of coloring matter or pigment from certain tiny cells in the scalp because these cells have become inactive. No matter what the cause, it is amazing to see how the grayness disappears when Kolor-Bak is used. It is the best known substitute for the natural pigmentation. It also banishes dandruff and stops itching of the scalp and falling hair. If you are gray, Kolor-Bak is all you need to make your hair look "young" again. No need to furnish a sample of your hair—no tests to make—as this one colorless liquid is effective on gray hair. Money back guarantee if Kolor-Bak is not satisfactory.

OLDSMOBILE SIX

PACKARD

FIFTY per cent more Packard Six cars were sold during the first six months of 1925 than during the entire year 1924.

Records show that 72% of these sales were made to those who had owned other makes of cars.

Thousands of cars, representing 41 different makes, were traded in—cars far above and far below the Packard Six in price.

Sixty per cent of the new owners came to Packard because of the recommendations of those who owned Packard cars.

Considering this record, the lowered prices, and the improvements now offered—is there any reason why you, too, should not have a Packard Six?

POLICE MAKE REPORTS ON DISMISSAL OF CASES

Freeing of Burglary Suspect and Failure to Issue Liquor Warrant Cited in Statement.

Reports by detectives of the dismissal by Judge Gayer of the Court of Criminal Correction of a burglary and larceny charge against a man described by police as a police character and of the refusal of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Fania to issue a liquor warrant against a man in whose automobile liquor was found were made to Chief of Detectives Kaiser today.
In compliance with orders recently issued by Chief of Police Gerk.

One report states that Judge Gayer dismissed a burglary and larceny charge against John Klein
because the officers did not have a search warrant when they raided
his home at 601 Pope avenue and found mattress cloth valued at $300
which was identified as stolen property. The report says that Judge Gayer fined Clark $200 on a liquor charge resulting from the same raid. Before finding the stolen property the detectives stated
they saw several men drinking home-brew beer in Clark's home.

The other report of detectives
states that Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Fania refused to issue a liquor warrant against John Klein of 1831 Market street. The detectives assert that they stopped Klein
at Taylor and Easton avenues Sunday night and asked him what he had in two packages in the tonneau of his automobile. They declare that he opened the packages voluntarily and stated that one contained gin and the other whiskey.
"A man's automobile is the same as his home," they quote Fania as saying, in refusing to issue the warrant.

AMERICAN SHIP DELAYED IN TOKYO BY CASE OF CHOLERA

President Lincoln Held Up by Discovery of Illness of Member

Copyright, 1935, by The Press and Publications Co., (New York World and Post-Dispatch.)

TOKIO, Sept. 10.—The scheduled sailing of the liner President Lincoln for San Francisco was delayed yesterday by discovery of a case of cholera in the crew. Cholera is slowly spreading in Tokyo.
There are now seven actual cases
here, but health officials say there is not yet cause for alarm. There are reported to be 34 cases in Yokohama, where there have been 12 deaths. In Kobe there are six cases.

Discovery of a case of cholera near the financial district brought an order for anti-cholera injections
for 5000 residents of the Hibya district across the street from the Imperial Hotel. In the event the disease spreads further it is declared all citizens of Tokyo must be inoculated as a precautionary measure.

Food brought into the city is being watched carefully and fishing between Tokyo and Yokohama is prohibited. Airplanes are circling the city dropping millions of handbills warning the people to boil
their water, to refrain from eating fresh vegetables and to take other precautions.

"FINED" ON ROAD FOR SPEEDING

I. W. Morgan of Belleville reported to the Sheriff's office at

Clayton that he was stopped at 1:15

a. m. today while driving on St.

Charles road, near Woodson road,

by a man in a large black sedan

who accused him of speeding.

"I am an officer," said the man,

according to Morgan, "and you either can settle up or go to Clayton."

Morgan said he gave the man $10

and the latter drove away. But Morgan took the license number on the sedan and the Sheriff's office

found it had been issued for a Ford

touring car to a man living near

Pine Lawn. He will be interviewed

in an attempt to trace the sedan described by Morgan.

A CAR OF CHEESE!

As a general thing we do not boast of the large quantities in which we buy, because it is obvious that we are quality buyers.
But we have secured such a wonderful car of Wisconsin Cream Cheese that we want everybody to know about it and everyone to try some. This is a car of June make Cheese and we are confident that it is the best money can buy. It has a rich cream

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—The diamond jubilee committee last night presented Miss Helen Wills of Berkeley, national and Olympic women's tennis champion, with a bronze statue, 18 inches in height, as a token of recognition for the credit she has brought her state.

Promotes $10,000 Golf Tourney

JACK MALLEY

St. Louisans to Play in $10,000 Coast Golf Event

Jack Malley, Formerly a Pro Here, Promoting Rich Los Angeles Open Tournament.

Several St. Louis golfers will journey to California to compete in the $10,000 Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament, which will be held on the coast Jan. 7, 8 and 9. It will be the richest prize list ever put up for the golfers, with $3500 as first prize and the first 25 golfers finishing in the money.

Earl Howell, St. Louis District professional champion; Arthur Longworth, pro at St. Louis Country Club; Jack Burns of North Hills and Donald and Elmer Harrison of Algonquin, will represent the St. Louis District in the tourney on the coast.

Jack Malley, former St. Louisan and a son of Matt Malley, connected for many years with the Forest Park Golf Club, is president of the Southern California P. G. A., under whose auspices the tournament will be held. Jack Malley plans a trip to Chicago during the National Pro Golfers tournament to line up the stars for the coast competition. Hagen, Sarazen, Barnes, Kirkwood, MacDonald Smith and other leading money shooters already have signified their intention of making the trip to the coast and the richness of the purse probably will produce one of the fastest fields ever entered in a tournament. Second prize will be $1500; third $1000; fourth $750, and fifth $500. Each prize will be $200 and three will be $150 of $100 each, besides alternate prizes for amateurs who finish in the top flight.

BOOTH TO COMPETE FOR MILLROSE A. A. CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—If the harriers of the Philadelphia-American Athletic Association can win the national A. A. C. cross-country championship again this fall it will not be because of the lack of an effort on the part of the team.

The Millrose club will have three formidable runners in the first line attack. Verne Booth, the former John Hopkins star, who ran several smart races against Nurnli and Ritola on the board to last winter; Pat Flynn, veteran of the old Irish-American A. C. team, and Freddy Wachsmuth, who won the senior A. A. C. individual title last fall.

Booth, Flynn and Wachsmuth measure up as the equal of any cross-country trio in sight and they will be the great Ritola, coveting over the hills and dales in the Philadelphia-American colors.

Shenard's problem is to develop second string runners capable of supporting the efforts of the leaders. He has six candidates for the task of Andy Crawford, the former Glencoe star, who is now running in the Millrose colors.

In addition to Crawford, there are Harvey Prick, another veteran, capable of running any distance up to 25 miles; Orrin Judy, a former Colgate University runner, who is showing considerable promise in the longer events; Bobby Boyl, Arthur Mitchell and Herby Tranter, a young Canadian runner.

ST. LOUIS AND CHICAGO SWIMMERS TO COMPETE TONIGHT AT LORELEI

St. Louis and Chicago tank stars will compete in a swim meet tonight at Lorelei Natatorium in a program which includes events for all classes.

Charles Mudge, who won the 5-mile river swim Monday, is one of the favorites tonight, as are also H. Leavard of Chicago, Jerry Specht, Adolf Furman, Harry B. Ringer and Jim Robin. Teams are entered from Forest Park High School, Knights of Columbus, New Orleans A. C., North Side Y. M. C. A. and Griffith Natatorium of Chicago.

Miss Grace Stewart of St. Louis and Miss Emma Shematis of Chicago will feature in the women's events.

Tragos to Wrestle Collins.
George Tragos, former Olympic wrestling star and contender for light heavyweight championship honors, will meet Jack Collins, a powerful Florida grappler, in a special bout Sunday afternoon at the Red Ball Gymnasium. Harry D. Sharpe will referee.

WRAY'S COLUMN

Still Profitable.
DESPITE the enormous increase in capitalization, salaries and the purchase price of players, major league baseball still pays.

Income tax paid by the St. Louis American League club indicates a profit of over $174,600 in 1924. As the present ground of the local franchise, owned and operated by the St. Louis American League club, is at least $150,000, the club's profit was about 23 per cent—pretty fair, even for these dire financial days.

It is about $14,000 more than the club's biggest year under the 12-year regime of Robert Lee Hedges. The peak of Hedges' campaign was in 1908, when about $160,000 was realized and the present grandstand made possible.

But while the amount earned last year was greater, the percentage doesn't compare at all with the 1908 earnings. The club's capitalization in 1908 was only $80,000 and the team's earnings that year were therefore 20 per cent.

Contrast this with the 1924 profit of 23 per cent.

Ball on Velvet Today.
OWNER Phil Ball, who emerged from the Federal League disaster with a $182,000 deficit and bought the present Browns for $425,000, has at last emerged from the red ink and is about playing the game on velvet.

The club has earned money in at least eight of the 11 seasons since its present owners acquired it. Big years have resulted since 1921, with the year 1922 a real money-maker. The club cleared well over $200,000 that season, which was the best in the 23 years' history of the organization.

Major League baseball in general, as in the case of the Browns, has found that it pays to put big money into baseball. Big money comes back out of it.

Where once baseball magnates made a competence out of the game, today they make huge fortunes.

At Last an Amateur.
NOW we know there is such a thing as an amateur. We had begun to believe, from the many and varied descriptions of an amateur, that he was about as real as the "big fish that got away."

Bobby Jones, national amateur golf champion, however, we have run the fabled amateur to his lair.

Bobby made a noise like an 18-karat amateur when he told a syndicate offering him $12,000 for golf contributions: "You don't want to sign me because I can write well, but because I can play golf."

A $12,000 contract ordinarily is about as wholesome for amateurs as strychnine for a mouse. It takes a real amateur to sniff it out and sidestep it, instead of nibbling at the bait.

Philippine Islands SEND ANOTHER VILLA TO U. S. TO WIN TITLE

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SAN FRANCISCO.—From all accounts reaching here, the young Philippine boxer, Scapulo, who was sent to the United States by the People of the Philippine Islands as the logical successor to the late Frank Villa, is all and more than Frank Villa claimed for him.

Scapulo has been boxing in San Francisco the past week and his work has been sensational for the fans and scribes are all worked up over him. Manager Churchill has put in a claim for the world's title left vacant by Villa and declares that he will demand a bout with Fidel La Barba, who recently beat Frankie Genaro for the American championship.

Davis Cup Trials All Right But They Don't Mean Anything, Champion Bill Tilden Writes

Selection of Himself and Johnston to Play in Doubles Match Indicated by Test Matches, but Committee Fails to Make Choice.

By William T. Tilden II.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Every year the Davis Cup team selection causes a riot. One year no one could question the wisdom of the choice of the four players who were selected, but this year a few pertinent questions about how the team should be played.

Little Bill Johnston settled once and for all this year the question of his superiority over Vincent Richards by defeating him twice in test matches in single and double play. The big howl once more comes in doubles.

The committee informs the four players that they will be selected to play in three doubles matches to meet in the next few days. It is presumed that the team could represent the United States in the doubles of the Davis Cup.

Vincent Richards and R. N. Williams II. are opposed to Bill Johnston and me. We were two out of three matches. Just prior to the third match I asked Julian S. Myrick, chairman of the Davis Cup Committee, if the third and final match would be conclusive and if the winning team would play in the Davis Cup. He said the match was very important, of course, but that the committee would use its judgment and the result would not be conclusive.

Trials are meaningless. I now rise to ask publicly why these trials should be held if the results mean nothing, and if the committee would not be bound to a great extent by the result. Especially does it seem foolish to have selected and charged an admission to the trials, while the matches if they had no standing when the committee knew, because I told them, that I was playing with an injured arm, which I had severely strained at St. Louis.

More Players on Committee. France is too strong to allow us to risk untold or unknown quantities. I feel that the tennis world has a right to know something of the inside workings of Davis Cup selection. And while I may be accused of yelling "Wolf! Wolf!" I want to sound a warning for the player representation on all the important branches of the U. S. T. A. Our policy will become narrower and narrower.

Tennis is a game to play, but the man who is playing it should know better about the present condition than those who played it in the past. Copyright by the Public Ledger Co.

WINTER TO RIDE IN PROFESSIONAL BIKE RACES IN THE EAST

Charles Winter of New York, former king of the American amateur bicycle road races, departed for home Monday.

Winter, representing New York in the national meet held at Forest Park Saturday and Sunday, was defending the title he won at Buffalo last year. He was beaten by Edward Merker of Chicago by one point. Winter's defeat came as a surprise, for he was favored to retain his title.

Standing about 5 feet 9 inches and weighing 184 pounds, Winter was competing in his third championship meet. He first sprang to prominence in 1923, when, after he had eliminated New York's best rider, he finished second in the national meet at Chicago. His next championship ride was at Buffalo where he won the title. This was his third try for the crown and he said, before he departed, it would be his last, as he would ride as a professional.

John Chapman, manager of the Newark Velodrome, signed Charles for the annual Chicago six-day race before he left New York.

The American Bicycle League officials stated after the races Sunday that while no city has been awarded the national championship next year, the meet would probably be held in Philadelphia.

William T. Tilden II.
NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—
The Davis Cup team selection causes a riot. Certainly the wisdom of the choice of the four players is a few pertinent questions about how the team

two weeks previously.
It was right and proper to risk
my arm if the matches meant anything, but if these trials were merely practice I should think that to endanger a member of the squad was foolhardy and extremely careless. Let us arrive at a definite basis of Davis Cup selection in the future.
Superiority Conclusive.
Trials, if held, should either mean something definite, as they seemed to last year when an unofficial meeting of Richards and Johnston
in the East-West was given sufficient weight to remove Johnston and replace Richards, or else no trial should be held. Certainly if a two-out-of-three singles match was sufficient grounds to put Richards on last year's team, the three-out-of-five official trials in doubles this year should settle definitely the right of Johnston and myself to play doubles this year.
The claim that Johnston can't play every day is ridiculous and absolutely side-stepping the issue,
for Johnston is at his best when playing daily.
I cannot understand why the committee is not willing to see the demand on the part of the American tennis public that ability is the determining factor for the Davis Cup team.
More Players on Committee.
France is too strong to allow us
to risk untold or unknown quantities. I feel that the tennis world has a right to know something of the inside workings of Davis Cup selection. And while I may be accused of yelling "Wolf! Wolf!" in the future, that unless we have more player representation on all the important branches of the U. S. T. A.
our policy will become narrower
and narrower.
Tennis is a game to play, and the man who is playing it today
knows better about the present condition than those who played it in the past.

French Ace Plays Super Tennis Against American Champion at Philadelphia

Member of Challenging Team Captures First and Third Sets, While Big Bill Takes the Second Without the Loss of a Game.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—The world's series of tennis, challenger and for the Davis cup, began today in a colorful setting here with France seeking the crown of International supremacy now held by the United States.

"Big Bill" Tilden, mainstay of the country's forces for the past years, took up the first burden of defense in the opening match with Jean Borotra, sensational French star, as his opponent. "Little Bill" Johnston was paired with Jacques Lacoste in the second singles match of the afternoon.
Overcast skies gave a threat of rain and a stiff breeze whipped
the grand-stand inclosure, but playing conditions otherwise were excellent.

Approximately 7000 spectators
were in the stands.
Hallowell C. Sherrard of Pittsburgh occupied the umpire's chair.

First Set.

Tilden began service and quickly took the first game on three errors by Borotra on a whistling placement down the side line.
Borotra brought a cheer with a two-point shot for one of the first in the match.
The bounding Basque evened the score by racing through the second game on love on his own delivery.
Three errors by Tilden and a placement shot gave the Frenchman his points.
Borotra forced Tilden to deuce
four times before dropping the third game. The American finally pulled it out by forcing his rival into errors on two smashing service shots.

Borotra came back to even the score at two-ones on his own delivery, aided by the champion's errors, then ran into the lead by breaking through the champion's service in the fifth game.
The Frenchman was brilliant at the net and outplayed the champion
on several spectacular exchanges.
Borotra was forced to deuce on his own service in the sixth game
and won it on the champion's errors to lead at 4-2. He was covering court in sensational fashion, while Tilden was wild, particularly on back court.

The American steadied a bit in the next game and won it on four consecutive outs by Borotra, three of them on bullet service shots.

Despite two double faults, Borotra won the eighth game after it had gone to deuce and led at five-love. His net play was spectacular and Tilden was forced to the defensive. The American came back to win his own service in the ninth game, but Borotra continued
his streak to pull out the set 6-4
by taking the tenth game, aided by two sparkling placements.
The point score and stroke analysis, first set:

Name. A. P. O. N. D.F.P.E. E.
Tilden. 2 5 14 7 2 7 23
Borotra. 0 6 15 10 1 6 26

Second Set.

Tilden struck his stride at the start of the second set and gained a lead of four-nothing on games in short order. The champion had Borotra racing from side to side
and a dazzling mixture of shots.
He was finding the range with his shots and frequently catching his opponent out of position.
Borotra's defense stiffened in the third and fourth games, both of which he forced to deuce by clever
net play, the last one six times.
The champion made it five in a row by taking his own delivery shot.

The champion finished his love
victory with the aid of a pair of dazzling placements in the sixth game while Borotra contributed the deciding point with a bullet fault.

The American won the set chiefly on his superior tactics. Borotra was outgeneraled and outplayed throughout.

Pairings for Muny Elimination Series to Be Made Today

Pairings will be arranged at noon
today for the municipal baseball city championship eliminations. The drawing will take place in the office of William F. Vorger, superintendent of recreation.

At a meeting yesterday two protests on eligibility of players were heard and granted. The Executive Committee upheld the Longeneberg club of the Wilson League in protesting the status of J. Skinner of the Highland team, and the protest
of the Puritans of the Manufacturers' League on the eligibility of Pitcher Jackovac of the Sunlight nine. Evidence introduced showed that Jackovac had played in the Southwestern League as late as July 8 in violation of the rule which forbids minor league participation later than June 15.

It was indicated at yesterday's meeting that the teams reaching the semifinals may play a round
robin of three games each instead of having only the finalists play a three-game series.

Cullop Sets New Home Run Mark in Southern

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 10.—Nick Cullop, Atlanta, broke all records for home runs in the Southern Association by smashing out his twenty-eighth four-base hit of the season in the Georgia city yesterday. Previously both Cullop and Riley, Mobile, tied the record of 27 home runs set last year by John Anderson, Chattanooga.

Huggins Will Prove He's a Real Manager if He Can Restore the Yanks to Top Form, Foster Says

Machine Has Broken Down All Along the Line and Has Lost
About 25 Per Cent of Its Former Efficiency—Ruth May Again Play Good Baseball.

By John B. Foster.
A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—(Copyright, 1925.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Manager Miller Huggins of the New York Yankees, has a task before him of bringing his club back to championship pitch in 1926, which if successfully accomplished, will rank him in the very topmost flight of baseball managers.

The Yankees' present contenders in 1926, means that the team will have to be so reconstructed that it will regain about 250 in victories, which is a winning ability.
In other words,
each player on the club must play one fourth better than last season's performance, and the manager must be able to get the best
out of the team.

The Yankees see 1926 looming up with one sure and dependable outfielder, Combs, and with the hope that Paschal is about right for fast company. They also have Ruth if his reform is permanent, may again
play good baseball.

The infield is shattered. Every position on it can stand strengthening. Bengough is the only catcher worth while. He is not a hard batter. The pitchers are as much a problem as they were. They may be good another year—some of them.

If the one boss shaver had a baseball counterpart it would be the 1925 Yankees. Scraps, nuts, bolts, spokes, hubs and sideboards
tumbled into a heap of rubbish in a day.

The franchise of the Reading baseball club, it is reported, will be transferred to Newark instead of that of Syracuse. Branch Rickey of the Syracuse club has gone to Newark and consulted with Chapman
and the team and move them to place because Rickey insisted upon managing the club independent of Chapman.

Charles A. Davis, a Long Island
banker, is said to have been interested in Reading and to have agreed to purchase the franchise
and the team and move them to Newark. The team will play on or near the old Waldenmeyer Park, which was famous in early Newark
baseball history.

The principal trouble with the theory of manager and critics alike is that they forget to look the Yankees in the mouth before the season started, to get some idea as to what they were capable of.

Fight License Asked by Solari

The Business Men's Athletic Club
Wants to Conduct Profes-

A meeting of the Boxing Commission will be held tomorrow to consider the request of the Business Men's Club for a license to conduct boxing bouts under commission
auspices, both at Battery A arena

The application was made by James Solari and Harry Cook, sponsors for the club.
They plan to hold an outdoor show at the Battery A and later at the Odeon Theater.

The Business Men's A. C. is the second organization to request a promotion license, the commission already having granted one to the New Coliseum Athletic Association, which is being conducted by Eugene J. Straus.

Pirates Open 5-Game Series Here Today

Hornaby's Men Can Put a Scare Into Pittsburgh Hearts and Tighten Pennant Race.

By J. Roy Stockton.
You never can tell about a St.
Louis baseball club. After a season of indifferent performance the Browns of George Sisler turned on the Athletics of Connie Mack and administered three straight defeats which started and shook Sunday, the downgrade. The Mackmen, from league leaders, slumped and tumbled until today they are seven games behind the Senators. The Senators followed the Athletics
here and waded in a sound thrashing. Harris' men recovered more quickly and forged to the front.

Today another league leader will call at Sportsman's Park, the arena of broken hearts. Many a record has been smashed there. Many a St. Louis team, unable to go anywhere itself, has knocked off an ambitious rival. Ask Connie Mack.
Ask Walter Johnson. Ask Ty Cobb.

Look Out, You Pirates.
Pittsburgh's pennant-hungry Pirates are here for a five-game series. A single game is scheduled this afternoon, with one tomorrow,
two Saturday and one Sunday. A five-game series can do much to a team. It could put the Cardinals back in the cash first division and if the Giants could avoid defeat and the men of Hornaby could bowl
over the Pirates in the series, as the Browns bowled over the Mack-men and Senators, the Pirate lead of 7½ games could dwindle to such an extent that the remaining stages of the pennant race would be exciting indeed.

It is not probable that the Cardinals will knock the Pirates galley
west. Bill McKechnie has a stalwart team, a team which has shown so much courage in the face of bad breaks that the stoutness of the Pirate hearts cannot be questioned. But then the Cardinals are dangerous on their home lot. They have played around the 600 mark
at home and if their pitchers come through the Pirates may find themselves in trouble.

Haines vs. Aldridge.
Hornaby will send Jess Haines
against the Pirates this afternoon,
while Vic Aldridge, formerly of the Cubs, is due to take the hill for the league leaders. Aldridge has been a consistent winner this season and is one of the factors in the Pirates' success.

But then McKechnie has a sound team in all departments except
one. He has had trouble at second base. Moore was injured and then Johnny Rawlings, substitute second baseman who shone so brilliantly
in that role, suffered a fractured
leg. Now a St. Louis boy, Al Thompson, is filling the vacancy at second base, having been brought from Kansas City.

Several Outstanding Stars.
That is the only questionable point in the Pirate machine. In the outfield McKechnie has three stars in Cuyler, Carey and Barnhart and in the infield Pie Traynor at third and Glenn Wright at short are the best at their business. Pie Traynor is the best third baseman in the game today.

As this is the last visit of the Pirates here there will be a double-header tomorrow, probably, if today's game is prevented by rain.
A double bill already is ordered for Saturday, to start at 1:45 o'clock.

How the Coal Strike Strikes the Public

ANGRY suspicion that neither the operators nor the miners really tried to prevent the deadlock that closed the anthracite mines on September 1st finds expression in many an editorial and news dispatch, as reported in this week's issue of "The Literary Digest" dated September 12th.

The consumer of hard coal, confronted by the prospect of paying a higher price for his winter's supply, reads with smoldering resentment of the rich profits predicted for the operators and distributors from the large surplus supplies of anthracite already above ground. Nor does he feel any profound thrill of sympathy when the correspondents describe the "festival spirit" in which the miners welcome their enforced vacation.

The anthracite companies, declares President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, are using the strike "to unload at enhanced prices a greatly augmented tonnage of inferior coal." The miners, retorts an official spokesman for the companies, are using the strike to force a wage advance which would have to come ultimately out of the public's pocket. Another charge hinted at by the operators is that the United Mine Workers Union is sacrificing the anthracite field to serve its purpose in the soft coal industry. But while each side is accusing the other of forcing the suspension for ulterior motives, disinterested journals are blaming them both for this "strike against the consumer." "The periodic coal strikes of recent years have been manifestly directed primarily against the public and this is even more true of the present strike than of previous struggles," remarks the Buffalo Express. "Both miners and operators have surrendered all claims upon public sympathy," declares the Albany Knickerbocker Press, which denounces the strike as "inexcusable and senseless." Remarking that "neither side to the controversy has shown the right spirit," the St. Louis Star points out that the operators, in a position to profit whichever way the situation developed, "have been arbitrary;" while the miners, "demanding a 10 per cent increase and the check-off, with wage adjustments for those employed by the day, have refused arbitration."

The leading article in "The Literary Digest" this week, September 12th issue, presents the story of the coal strike in all its various phases as gleaned from the newspaper press of America. It shows the prospects for and against an early settlement, and tells of the substitutes that have been proposed for the use of hard coal.

Good News for the Rent-Payer

Another of the many interesting articles in this week's "Digest," is a review of the recent announcement of the Industrial Conference Board that for the first time in ten years the upward flight of rents has been checked. It points out the rent reductions that have taken place in Chicago, Buffalo, New York, Detroit, Cleveland, and Los Angeles. In addition it reviews the housing situation throughout the country and shows how building construction is progressing. This article is accompanied by a graph which illustrates the text.

Tammany's Bitter Rough and Tumble Fight

Daily demands from cities in every corner of the country deluge New York political headquarters for information about the Smith-Hylan battle in the ranks of the Democracy of the metropolis. The whole country is watching it, as the press comment clearly indicates. The chief factor in arousing outside interest, according to the New York papers, is the widespread conviction that Governor Smith's political future is bound up in the result of the primary on September 15th. As one paper says, "if the Smith-Tammany forces can not defeat Hylan, it almost certainly means good-by to any aspirations the Governor may have for the nomination next year as an opponent to Senator Wadsworth." There is also the old Smith-Hearst feud, since Mr. Hearst and his papers are backing Hylan, and the anti-Hylan editors insist that a Hylan-Hearst victory would put Hearst in complete control of the city and seriously injure Governor Smith's prestige. All the interesting developments in this extraordinary struggle are reflected in "The Literary Digest" this week.

PEDIGO-WEBER AND JOHANSEN RISE SHARPLY

ST. LOUIS STOCK EXCHANGE.
Sept. 10.—Sharp price advances in large turnovers in several securities marked the forenoon session on the local market today. Pedigo-Weber Shoe continued the rise begun yesterday, adding 7 points to the previous day's upturn of 3 points within a short time. Johanzen Shoe also went forward sharply in substantial trading. Missouri Portland was very active at higher figure.

Johanzen Shoe outdied Pedigo-Weber in matter of price range, reaching 55, a net gain of 8 points, before the morning ended. Best-Clymer recorded further advance. Hamilton Shoe reacted some.

Owing to the active trading at one period in the morning business had to be suspended 10 minutes in order to allow checking up of trades.

At the afternoon session Boyd-Welsh continued its rise. Brown Shoe was up 2 points or more. There was fairly large trade in Skouras at fractional recession. Missouri Portland sold off in the afternoon.

WATCHMAN BOUND, EXPRESS FIRM ROBBED

Truck, 89 Cases of Shoes Stolen From St. Louis Company, 614 South Sixth.

Robbers gained entrance to the offices of the St. Louis Express Co., 614 South Sixth street, shortly before last midnight, bound the night watchman, leisurely searched the place and then drove away with one of the company's trucks, on which they had placed 89 cases of shoes.

Cries of the night watchman, Robert Hogan, a negro, 2523 Scott street, were heard by a citizen, who called a policeman. The policeman traced the cries to the inside loading platform, where he found the watchman bound hand-and-foot to the gear shift levers of a delivery truck. The watchman said he was dozing in a chair when awakened by the kicks of the robbers, three or four in number. They first tied him up, he said, and then searched the place for about two hours. Officials of the express company said today the value of the shoes was a few hundred dollars and the truck $2000. Deaf and Dumb Man Beaten and Robbed of $4.50.

Benson Wittmann, 27 years old, of 2223 Louise avenue, St. Louis County, was removed to the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium yesterday suffering from a probable fracture of the skull and numerous lacerations of the face. His mother, Mrs. Mamie Wittmann, of 1223 North Vandeventer avenue, related that her son, a deaf mute, had visited her Tuesday evening, and on making his way to a car line was accosted by two men, one of whom had a revolver. Unable to comprehend the robber's order, the victim pushed the revolver into the robber's face. Wittmann came to sometime later in a nearby alley, having been beaten unconscious and robbed of $4.50.

Two men with revolvers held up Nick George, proprietor of a restaurant at 2623 North Broadway, near Broadway and Warren street, after he had closed his restaurant at 11 p. m. After taking $10 and a watch from him they hit him on the head and dragged him to a lot where they left him.

Remus' Bond Cut to $25,000.
By the Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 10.—Failure of efforts to obtain $25,000 bonds for George Remus resulted in the bootleg king spending another night in the Hamilton County jail. Released from Dayton, O., jail Wednesday by habeas corpus proceedings, Remus was held in $50,000 bonds pending trial at St. Louis under an indictment charging him and several others with conspiracy to violate the Federal Prohibition act. Judge Smith Hick-slooper yesterday cut the original bond in half.

Buster Misses the Mushrooms

Who knows his treasure is suspected
At once will see that it's protected.

It was two or three days after Buster Bear's discovery of the mushroom tree of Chatterer the Red Squirrel before he thought of it again. The mushroom tree was, you know, a tree in which Chatterer the Red Squirrel was storing up mushrooms to dry that he might have them in the winter. Buster had discovered that tree quite by accident, and he had made up his mind that he would have one grand feast of mushrooms the last thing before he went to sleep for the winter. He felt quite sure that he would find those mushrooms right there when he went back to get them. He knew that Chatterer would not eat them until winter. They were to be a part of Chatterer's winter food supply.

The first time that Buster happened to be over near where that tree was growing he of course thought of it. "I may as well have a look at it," said he. "By this time Chatterer ought to have many more mushrooms hung up to dry. I hope he has. They certainly will taste good. And when I have a thing that tastes good I want a lot of it. My, it makes me hungry just to think of those mushrooms. It will be hard to wait until that last meal."

"I may as well have a look at it," said he

Buster shuffled along through the Green Forest toward that tree. When he came to it he sat up and looked up into it, all the time licking his lips. Then he stopped licking his lips. Then he blinked his little eyes. You know, Buster has little eyes for such a big fellow. Then he rubbed his little eyes. He rubbed them two or three times. Something was wrong. Either something was wrong with his eyes or he was looking up in the wrong tree. Not a mushroom was to be seen. No, sir, not a mushroom was to be seen. He walked all around the tree. It certainly looked like the right tree. Still, perhaps, he was mistaken. He would look at the other trees. He did. He looked at one after another. In not one was there so much as a piece of a mushroom.

"This is queer," muttered Buster. "Yes, sir, this is queer. It is the queerest thing I ever heard of. What can have become of those mushrooms? Now that they are gone I want them more than ever."

Then an idea popped into Buster's head. He remembered that Chatterer had seen him looking up at those mushrooms. In fact, Chatterer had called him bad names—the very worst names he could think of. He guessed now what had happened. "That noisy little rascal has taken all those mushrooms away and hidden them," muttered Buster. "He must have guessed that I was planning to get them. That is what he must have done. My, I must have those mushrooms. He thinks he's smart, but I'll show him that he can't fool Buster Bear. I guess he can't hide those mushrooms where I can't find them. He has got to put them up where they'll dry. That means that he can't hide them away in a hollow tree as he would acorns or nuts. They would spoil hidden away that way, and he knows it. He must have put them up in another tree somewhere, and all I have to do is look around until I find that tree. That ought not to be a very difficult thing to do."

So Buster started off, looking up in all the trees for mushrooms. By and by his neck began to ache. You see, he had his head tipped up to much that it made his neck ache. And he discovered that the Green Forest had a great many trees. He hadn't realized how many trees there were in the Green Forest. There were big trees and little trees and middle-sized trees. Buster began to doubt that it would be so easy to find those mushrooms.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Virttual dismissal of the complaint against the so-called Armour-Morris merger of packing interests is understood to have been decided upon by the Government.
The decision, which soon is to be given by Secretary Jardine, was discussed at today's Cabinet meeting and formal announcement is expected soon. The point on which the decision turned was whether there actually had been any overt act in violation of the law up to this time.
Attorney-General Sargent was asked by Jardine for an opinion,
but replied that the decision was up to the Agricultural Department, which is charged with administration of the packers and stockyards law.
The late Secretary Wallace is alleged to have been the original author of the complaint, which alleged that the merger would result in elimination of Morris & Co.
from the field of competition and would tend toward a monopoly.
This allegation the Armour and Morris interests denied.
Under the procedure prescribed
by law, a complaint merely initiates action and results a hearing.
An order to cease and desist is necessary after hearing, before a merger can be prevented.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—
President Coolidge made an unexpected announcement at a Cabinet meeting yesterday, but the quiet area around the White House was a dull
before the storm.
At the Cabinet meeting which he called for today the President will receive from the War Department chiefs reports on the status of all important matters before the Government. Thereafter he will find himself the center of a maze of controversy, friction and problems
as important as have yet confronted him.
He faces the task of laying down without delay a policy on the French debt and of determining what the Government can do when the supply of anthracite runs out.
He must negotiate with House members to give the party a united front on tax legislation. And primarily he must decide immediately his course toward the aviation and shipping board rows.
Taxes and war debts are to receive more intensive study at the Treasury now that both President Coolidge and Secretary Mellon have returned.
Treasury officials add the present plan is to recommend to Congress that surtaxes be cut to 20 per cent, that the publicity features of the law be repealed, and that estate taxes be reduced and eliminated entirely if an arrangement can be made to leave that field to the states.
Calliaux Around Suspicion.
Discussions of a preliminary nature on the French debt are in progress and the Treasury has been corresponding with members of the American Debt Commission, furnishing them with all available
Treasury data on the French resources.
Finance Minister Calliaux
aroused so much suspicion among debt officials by reason of the Franco-British debt terms that there is a disposition at the Treasury to wonder if Premier Painleve's proposal that the League of Nations call an armament conference is also intended to strengthen Calliaux's hand in connection with the debt.
This theory arises because France believes President Coolidge would not consent to join a league-sponsored conference and because France would be able to thwart Mr.
Coolidge's own program for a conference summoned by the United States by insisting that the league
be the host.
It is conjectured that Calliaux might intimate during the forthcoming debt negotiations that if France is treated with sufficient liberality she would not be disposed to insist on her proposal for a league disarmament conference.
Mellon Confident of Agreement.
Reassured, however, by Calli-aux's recent declarations that France proposes to reach an agreement speedily and without attempting leverage through the British
